WASHINGTON DEC 22 1917

In re	Second proviso of
Claim No. 1,091,774.	Section 2 of the act of
Amanda J. Wheaton, former widow of	September 8, 1916.
Joseph Blair, Jr.
Co. B, 189th Ohio Inf.	Reversed.

ON APPEAL FROM THE COMMISSIONER OF PENSIONS.

Amanda J. Wheaton as widow of Joseph Blair, Jr., filed January 22, 1917, her application for pension under the second proviso to section 2 of the act of September 8, 1916, alleging that they were married July 18, 1867; that he served 90 days or more in the late civil war and was honorably discharged from said service, and that he died May 13, 1881, leaving her his lawful widow surviving; that on September 16, 1883, she married Amson Wheaton, her last husband, who died November 16, 1916.

The claim was rejected June 2, 1917, on the ground that the appellant was not a widow when the act of September 8, 1916, was approved, her second and last husband from whom she was never divorced being then alive. From this action an appeal was entered June 27, 1917.

There is no question or denial in the appeal that the appellant was not a widow when the act of September 8, 1916, was approved, but it is contended that the ground on which her claim was rejected is not in accord with the true intent and correct interpretation of the second proviso to section 2 of the act of September 8, 1916.

In departmental decision rendered October 8, 1917, in the claim of Ellen Bowen, formerly widow of William Williams (20 P.D., advance sheets, No. 68), construing the second proviso to section 2 of the act of September 8, 1916, it was held substantially that a soldier's widow who never received pension because of her marriage since his death to another person may have title to pension under said proviso in the event of the dissolution of said marriage subsequent to the passage of the act of September 8, 1916, by the death of said person, or by divorce on her application without fault on her part. Therefore, the action complained of is reversed.

The Lord is my shepherd: I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me: thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies thou anointest my head with oil: my cup runneth over:

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Gerald Weaver and the former Lucy Rulman were married Jan. 24, 1956, by the late Msgr. John J. Vogel at St. John's Catholic Church. They are the parents of a daughter, Mrs. Robert F. (Ann) Hunt, Wixom, Mich.

E. A. WHEATON RETIRES

Elmer A. Wheaton of 403 East Quincy street has retired from active duty on the B. & O. His position, track supervisor, has been taken by John Dell, who now lives at 602 West King street.

Mr. Wheaton has been with the B. & O. for 44 years. He was born in 1884 in Sherwood, O., where he grew up and attended school. His first job away from home was at Republic Steel mills in East Chicago. He worked on the furnaces in the rolling mills for over a year. After leaving the mills and spending a short time in Sherwood, he returned to Chicago to work for the Pittsburgh Steel Construction Co. for nine months.

In 1904, Mr. Wheaton married the former Daisy M. Hemlinger of Van Wert county, O. The couple lived in Van Wert where Mr. Wheaton took his first railroad job, laborer for the Pennsylvania railroad. He then worked a year as a brakeman for the New York Central railroad in Van Wert.

Mr. Wheaton's first job for the B. & O. came in 1906 when he went to work on the section in Sherwood. By 1911 he had been promoted to track foreman in that city. From that time until 1930, he served as track foreman, extra foreman and general foreman.

The big promotion came in 1930 when Elmer Wheaton was made track supervisor at Defiance. In 1936, he was general foreman in the yards at Willard, and, shortly after, track supervisor at Washington Court House, O. In 1937, Mr. Wheaton was transferred to Garrett where he served as track supervisor until his retirement, July 15, 1950.

Mr. and Mrs. Wheaton lived their first three years in Garrett at 706 East Quincy street and now live at 403 East Quincy street. They have two daughters, Mrs. Leo Kernes of Napoleon, O., and Mrs. Harold Rulman of near Defiance. They have three grandchildren, Harman A. and Nancy Lou Kernes and Lucy Marlene Rulman. Sylvester Wheaton, a brother of Mr. Wheaton, was an operator for the B. & O. at Holgate and was killed in an auto accident in 1930 on the way to work. Mr. Wheaton also had a sister, and Mrs. Wheaton had a brother and a sister, all of whom are now dead.

Mr. Wheaton is a member of the B. & O. Veteran Employes' Association and of the local Aerie of the Eagles. When asked about the future, Mr. Wheaton said, "No plans," although he did say that if he got too "stale," he would get some kind of part time work.

The new track supervisor, John Dell, was transferred from Salamanca, N. Y., July 10, where he held the same position. Previous to that, he worked as track foreman in Defiance, Willard and Mark Center, O. Mr. Dell's wife and son, Paul, 10 years of age, moved to their home on West King street Monday.

Nursing a natural for county health director Weaver

By KATHY PUNCHES

She always wanted to be a nurse.

As a child she liked to care for the farm animals. She enjoyed looking after other people.

"I guess I never thought about doing anything else," says Lucy Weaver, Defiance County health commissioner.

While her 30-year nursing career has branched out from direct patient contact to an administrative role, Weaver remains dedicated to her profession.

She became a public health nurse shortly after graduation from nursing school. She had worked for a few months at Defiance Hospital when she was offered a job by then-health commissioner Dr. John Holtzmuller.

PROFILE

"When I talked to the nurse who was the supervisor, she told me about the variety and how interesting it was to work with the families," recalls Weaver. "It was a challenge to your nursing skills.

"One thing she said that sticks in my mind is 'public health is never boring.' I think of that often. Every day is different. There's such a variety, and it's always exciting."

The concept of public health began in the United States in 1789 with Merchant Marines who set up public health hospitals. In Ohio, the state department of health has been in existence since 1886, and local departments were established in 1918 with passage of the Hughes-Gris-

Nursing a natural wold Act.

In the early days of public health services, explains Weaver, people lived in poverty surrounded by unsanitary conditions, wit bage and sewage in the streets. Health officials offered guida cleaning up water supplies and tried to get ordinances passed t rect sewage problems. They dealt with typhoid fever and choler demics, tuberculosis, smallpox and diphtheria.

Today those diseases have been virtually eradicated. Says We
"When I started working here, my heaviest caseload was wit cases. Now one or two cases a year is about it."

In 1960, Weaver was named supervising nurse and in 1973 be assistant to health commissioner Dr. Glenn Usher.

"He talked me into going back and furthering my education," says.

She became acting commissioner in 1976, and upon completi her master's degree two years later, was officially appointed he commissioner.

In her new position Weaver became responsible for all progra the department. Since her background was in nursing — seeing tients in homes, schools, and immunization clinics — she worried she was not as knowledgeable in the environmental programs.

To acquaint herself she helped with restaurant, food service sewage inspections. On occasion, she also will work in the business fice to "get the feel and understand what our clerical staff g through."

She is a liaison between the department and the community a keeps in contact with other agencies, often giving referrals for fin cial assistance or counseling.

The department is responsible for reporting and maintaining cont of communicable diseases. "We've had some classic outbreaks, b we got them under control" with mass immunizations. Hepatitis o breaks occurred in 1964 and 1977, and measles in 1976.

"One of the prerequisites for being a good public health person is be a detective," she says. "You have to have investigative qualities find out the facts."

In the financial area, Weaver supervises 12 different budgets for t department. One of the most challenging parts of her job, she says, trying to find the money to operate. "We're fortunate to have had tw levies passed ... the second by a bigger margin than the first."

She feels state subsidies should be increased from the present 2 cents per capita (about $9,800 this year) to $1 or $1.50 per capita. "Ohi is almost at the bottom of the totem pole in state subsidies," she states

Frustrations in her work include dealing with child neglect, trans portation problems with patients, and reports of transients or peopl living in their own homes in unsanitary conditions. "By rights, w can't make them clean it up unless it extends to the outside ... then i becomes a public nuisance."

One of the biggest problems the department is presently faced with is a lack of space. "We've outgrown our facility," says Weaver. "We wold Act.

In the early days of public health services, explains Weaver, many people lived in poverty surrounded by unsanitary conditions, with garbage and sewage in the streets. Health officials offered guidance in cleaning up water supplies and tried to get ordinances passed to correct sewage problems. They dealt with typhoid fever and cholera epidemics, tuberculosis, smallpox and diphtheria.

Today those diseases have been virtually eradicated. Says Weaver, "When I started working here, my heaviest caseload was with TB cases. Now one or two cases a year is about it."

In 1960, Weaver was named supervising nurse and in 1973 became assistant to health commissioner Dr. Glenn Usher.

"He talked me into going back and furthering my education," she says.

She became acting commissioner in 1976, and upon completion of her master's degree two years later, was officially appointed health commissioner.

In her new position Weaver became responsible for all programs in the department. Since her background was in nursing — seeing patients in homes, schools, and immunization clinics — she worried that she was not as knowledgeable in the environmental programs.

To acquaint herself she helped with restaurant, food service and sewage inspections. On occasion, she also will work in the business office to "get the feel and understand what our clerical staff goes through."

She is a liaison between the department and the community and keeps in contact with other agencies, often giving referrals for financial assistance or counseling.

The department is responsible for reporting and maintaining control of communicable diseases. "We've had some classic outbreaks, but we got them under control" with mass immunizations. Hepatitis outbreaks occurred in 1964 and 1977, and measles in 1976.

"One of the prerequisites for being a good public health person is to be a detective," she says. "You have to have investigative qualities to find out the facts."

In the financial area, Weaver supervises 12 different budgets for the department. One of the most challenging parts of her job, she says, is trying to find the money to operate. "We're fortunate to have had two levies passed ... the second by a bigger margin than the first."

She feels state subsidies should be increased from the present 25 cents per capita (about $9,800 this year) to $1 or $1.50 per capita. "Ohio is almost at the bottom of the totem pole in state subsidies," she states.

Frustrations in her work include dealing with child neglect, transportation problems with patients, and reports of transients or people living in their own homes in unsanitary conditions. "By rights, we can't make them clean it up unless it extends to the outside ... then it becomes a public nuisance."

One of the biggest problems the department is presently faced with is a lack of space. "We've outgrown our facility," says Weaver. "We use the hallways as waiting rooms, and private offices for clinics. We just don't have enough room.

"The greatest thing going for us is the fact that we have an excellent staff. They're hard-working and dedicated.

"There are two things they're taught when they come here. The first is confidentiality ... and the second is, whoever comes in the front door is treated with respect, regardless of their socio-economic conditions. People don't dread coming here. The staff is congenial and friendly."

Weaver is also pleased with the department's governing body, the board of health. "They give backing to me and my staff. Sometimes I hear other agencies complain about their boards, and I'm so proud of ours."

The board, appointed by a district advisory council, consists of five members. There is also a medical director, Dr. Jack Kane.

Citing statistics which state that by 1990, 25 to 30 percent of the population will be over the age of 60, Weaver stresses the many services offered for senior citizens including health screening, blood pressure screening, flu vaccines, an expanded Home Health program (designed to keep patients self-sufficient instead of going to a hospital), a hospice program, and 24-hour home health care.

"I like older people ... I'm really glad when we can have something special for them," she says.

Weaver has gradually worked herself into the role of administrator, but she still misses direct contact with patients.

"One of the things that's helped me most is that I've grown with the department. I understand the staff and what they have to deal with because I've dealt with those problems myself coming up through the ranks."

Saying she was fortunate to have "good bosses," she recalls Dr. Holtzmuller ("He put a lot of warmth into public health"), Dr. Millard Hanson ("He taught me about discipline and documenting"), Dr. Samuel Gallup ("He brought some of the discipline of Army life") and Dr. Usher ("He taught me budgeting and administration").

"I owe a lot to my parochial education ... and my parents. They taught me to work hard and to be honest with other people.

"My whole family has been supportive. When you work full time and go to school, your family puts up with a lot. In the early years I had a lot of meetings, and later on, when I went back to school, it was especially hard."

Remembering long drives home from Toledo in all kinds of weather, she says, "It didn't come easy, but I applied myself. I set a goal for myself since I had to get my master's in two years to get the job" of health commissioner.

"Being older, I had a lot of people watching to see if I could do the job."

When Weaver became health commissioner there were only four women commissioners in Ohio, two being physicians. Out of approximately 155 departments in the state, she estimates that 8 to 10 presently have women commissioners.

Weaver's satisfaction with her career is obvious. She especially enjoys the variety: "When the phone rings and you pick it up, you're never sure what's going to be on the other end."

If she ever gets to the point where she doesn't enjoy going to work every day, she says she will quit.

The chances of that happening, though, are extremely slim.

The meeting's Co-Chairmen, Bill Franks and Al Franks, have planned a session on solid waste to include: ODNR Grants for solid waste management districts; a report on the used tire task force; a status report on H.B. 317; and a discussion on demolition sites. Also on the agenda are: An update on VOC's in drinking water; an update on the new open burning regulations; and Dioxins, the new chemical concern. Lunch will be provided with a speaker to discuss the changes in the upper atmosphere.

The meeting is open to all Health Commissioners and their Environmental Health Supervisory staff. Registration will be $30.00 for the first participant from each department and $20.00 for each additional participant from the same department.

67th Annual Conference A Success

Presenters on the first day of the 1986 conference included Katherine McCarter, Associate Executive Director of the American Public Health Association. Ms. McCarter discussed possible changes in Federal legislative activity under the new Democrat-controlled Senate, and noted the Preventive Health Block Grant is in need of lobbying efforts by locals to support its continuation. Joel Nitzkin, a local health officer from New York state and President of the National Association of County Health officials, provided his perspective of the role of the local health department and the health officer, and also suggestions on impacting public-health decisions at the national level.

During the luncheon, Senator Paul Pfeifer, Ohio 26th District, was presented with an AOHC Distinguished Legislator Award in recognition of his efforts in introducing and securing passage of mandatory seat belt legislation in the State. In presenting the award, Joel Lucia, Chairman of the Association's Public Affairs Committee, declared Ohio's Seat Belt Law as one of the most significant pieces of health legislation to be enacted in recent years. It has been projected that the use of seat belts in motor vehicles can prevent as many as 600 deaths a year in Ohio.

During the afternoon, Columbus City Deputy Health Commissoiner Mike Pompili presented information regarding chemical emergency planning and preparedness at the local health department level. Also giving suggestions were OEPA Office of Emergeny Response Chief Ken Schultz as well as DOW Chemical Co. representative Bill Harris.

On Tuesday, November 6th, highlights of the day included an informative session by Dr. Stuart Brown, Injury Epidemiology and Control Division Director at CDC, on injury control. Dr. Brown reviewed U.S. injury statistics showing the immense toll taken on the young in terms of years of life lost, work and school missed, and expense to our economy. As a follow up, Philadelphia Environmental Services Director Ralph Sutton described his health department's injury prevention and housing program.

During lunch, another AOHC Distinguished Legislator Award was presented, this time to Representative Paul H. Jones, Ohio 63rd District, for his efforts in combating child abuse in Ohio through his Children's Trust Fund legislation.

During Tuesday afternoon's AOHC business meeting, the results of the elections were presented as follows:

President-elect: Ken Pearce, Lorain Co.
Secretary-Treasurer: Nancy Osborn, Ottawa Co.
Director-At-Large: Bob Pattison, Canton City
Director-At-Large: Bob Derge, Clinton Co.
Southeast District Director: Steve Hodsden, Fairfield Co./Lancaster City
Southwest District Director: Bill McCullough, Greene Co.

Tuesday evening's festive banquet was well-attended and included several notable events including presentation by the Ohio Department of Health of six Centennial Awards, a President's Award to your humble editor for "The Ohio Health Officer", and special recognition to Don Ledwell for his efforts as 1986 Program Chairman. Other highlights ementary school enrollment through the early 1990s and then move into junior high and high schools.

School enrollment had been declining since 1972, the result of a fall-off in youth population as post-World War II "baby boomers" began to move into college and beyond. But the number of children born in the United States began to move up again in 1977, and it is those children who are now in kindergarten and the early elementary grades.

"Pre-primary" enrollment — in nursery schools and kindergartens — has risen from 3.7 million to 3.8 million, according to the department.

College enrollment, by contrast, has declined only slightly despite precipitous decreases in the population of 18- to 21-year-olds. More older, working adults have been seeking higher education, offsetting those declines slightly.

The department also predicts a 7 percent increase in spending for education at all levels, which will reach $261.5 billion in the coming year. It gives no reason for the increase, which is about twice the rate of inflation; but increasing national attention to educational reforms and low teacher salaries is often seen as spurring increased spending at state and local levels.

In spite of the increases in primary- and secondary-school enrollment, the number of teachers is expected to hold firm in schools, resulting in some growth in the sizes of classes.

Overall, one in four Americans is either giving education or taking it. There are 63.4 million people in the school system in a nation of 239 million.

HULL TO OFFER 3-POINT PLAN

Secretary Would Pledge U. S. Arms Only in Curbing Aggressor

Washington, Oct. 6—Responsible sources in Washington believed that a three-point plan for maintaining future world peace will be outlined by Secretary of State Cordell Hull to the British and Russian foreign ministers in Moscow about the middle of this month, as follows:

1—Agreement between United States, Great Britain and Russia, later to be extended to other like-minded nations, that political differences which present a threat to world peace shall be submitted to agencies which would use the remedies of discussion, negotiation, conciliation and good offices to effect a settlement.

2—A similar tripower agreement providing that disputes of a legal character be adjudicated by an international court of justice whose decisions shall be based upon principles of law.

3—A defense pact pledging the three major Allied powers to cooperate jointly in restraining future aggression by nations seeking to impose their will on other powers by force.

Significance of Hull's plan is that the United States would pledge use of its armed forces only to restrain actual aggression.

The American government would not, under Hull's plan, enter a military alliance with other powers that gave them a blank check on U. S. support.

If Great Britain or Russia, for instance, became involved in a dispute with another power, the United Sattes would agree to aid them only if the third nation first resorted to outright military aggression to impose its will.

If Britain or Russia should resort to force to impose their will the United States would not be pledged to intervene on their behalf.

Hull also is said to be willing to promise American participation in such security system only if a satisfactroy understanding can be reached with Russia concerning the joint treatment to be accorded a defeated Germany as well as the policy to be pursued toward Europe generally.

AUTO REGISTRATIONS IN OHIO DOWN 3 PCT.

Columbus, Oct. 6—Number of motor vehicles registered in 1943 was 86,544 less than those registered in 1942. Cylon Wallace, state registrar of motor vehicles, reported today to State Highway Director Hal G. Souts.

Revenue received from these registrations was $26,883,021 this year as against $27,720,587 in the preceding year.

"Surprisingly enough," said Souts, "this is only a decline of hoarding and consequence wastage of labor in war industries.

The bill was adopted without a record vote.

The substitute measure was introduced by Senators Josiah Bailey of North Carolina and Bennett Clark of Missouri, both Democrats.

Here is what the Bailey-Clark bill does:

1—Destroys the Wheeler bill.

2—Prohibits employment by federal government of persons between 18 and 38 other than fathers who are deferred for occupational reasons, unless a committee or official certifies them as indispensable.

3—Applies same rule of "indispensability" for deferment of workers in private industry. Provides no single persons or childless married men of draft age shall be deferred in private industry unless employer furnishes certificate of indispensability, gives reasons and the local board approves. Also requires approval of draft appeals board for deferment of persons, if place of employment is located outside of jurisdiction of appeal board area in which local board having jurisdiction is located.

4—Gives director of selective service supreme power over industrial deferments, either upon appeal or on his own motion.

5—Requires selective service so far as possible to exhaust other categories before pre-Pearl Harbor fathers are called.

6—Directs the president to name a board of five physicians including one each from Army and Navy to review draft standards of the services to see if they can be safely lowered.

TOLEDO BAKERY STRIKE TO END

Truck Drivers Will Return to Work Thursday Unionist Says

Toledo, Oct. 6—Striking Toledo bread truck drivers will return to work Thursday in answer to appeals from federal officials, E. J. Haumesser, business representative of the AFL's bakery drivers chauffeurs and helpers union, announced today.

Haumesser said four of the city's five major wholesale bakeries would resume the baking of bread tonight. The companies failed to bake in retaliation to a drivers threat to strike in a contract negotiation dispute.

J. R. Steelman, director of the U. S. Conciliation Service at Washington, immediately appealed to the firms and the drivers to produce and deliver bread and to resume their negotiations.

The parties to the dispute revolving around inability to reach a new contract agreement in six weeks are to meet Friday with a federal labor conciliator.

H. OLAN SMITH

H. Olan Smith is a graduate of nearby Sherwood High School and Defiance College in 1946. An outstanding basketball and baseball player in high school, Smith went on to earn four varsity letters in basketball for Defiance College.

During the 1945-46 campaign, Smith led the nation in scoring and free throw shooting. He averaged 24.6 per game for the Yellow Jackets, who were the highest scoring college team in the state for two consecutive years.

Following graduaton, Smith played four years of Minor League baseball, two of which were as player-manager, in the St. Louis Browns organization. He played eight years of semi-pro baseball in Fort Wayne, Ind. and was a member of the National Baseball Congress champions three times. In 1956, Smith participated in the Global World Series where he was the leading hitter in the tournament and was named to the All-Tournament team as a first baseman.

In 1947, Smith coached Edon to the Williams County title and in 1950 led Sherwood to the Defiance County crown.

PRIOR TO ENTERING Defiance College, Smith spent two years with the U.S. Army Infantry, most of which was spent in Europe during World War II with the 45th Division. He was the recipient of the Bronze Star.

Smith, who received his Master's Degree from The University of Indiana in 1960, has been principal of Ney Junior High School for the past six years. He and his wife Garnett reside at Rt. 1, Sherwood and they have a daughter Mrs. Shayna Cline.

"I'm overwhelmed by this honor," Smith said. "I've got quite a few memories about Defiance College and I'm really looking forward to Saturday.

Smith is still one of the Yellow Jackets' biggest boosters attending almost every home football and basketball game.

Defiance College will initiate its Athletic Hall of Fame Saturday afternoon when three charter members will be inducted during halftime ceremonies of the Manchester game at Alumni Field.

Gilbert E. Smith of Van Wert; H. Olan Smith of Sherwood and Merle A. McDonald of Defiance will be the first of the former athletes to be inducted into the hall.

Plaques symbolizing the awards will be presented to the inductees by Noel D. Underwood of Marysville who is the acting president of the Alumni Varsity D Club.

THE HALL OF FAME has been in the planning stages for several months with Athletic Director Marv Hohenberger and former AD Merle McDonald serving as the chief engineers for the project. However, Hohenberger was forced into a solo role last spring when McDonald was relieved as athletic director.

The Hall of Fame was established to recognize the Defiance College men who have distinguished themselves in the field of athletics, either by virtue of their performance on athletic teams representing the college or by meritorious

GARNETT SMITH, Defiance College associate professor of business education and director of career planning and placement, will lead a seminar entitled "Tomorrow's Office Today," as part of the college's non-credit opportunity program. The course is offered from 8:30-10:30 on Tuesdays and Wednesdays, June 19 to 27 at the college's Schauffler Hall Room 106.

'Tomorrow's Office Today' seminar scheduled at DC

Today's modern technology has changed the office place tremendously, reports Garnett Smith, Defiance College associate professor of business education and director of career planning and placement.

Because of the increasingly sophisticated equipment used in today's business offices — a greater awareness of human relations, effective communication and professionalism in the office has emerged.

"People who were trained 10 years ago," Smith said, "are going to find that their training isn't going to work today. Technology in offices has made a tremendous impact on procedure. There was a time when people spent so much time behind a machine, that they didn't worry about human relations." she said.

As a result of changing methodology, the Defiance College non-credit opportunity program is offering a seminar entitled, "Tomorrow's Office Today," on Tuesday and Wednesday mornings from 8:30 to 10:30 a.m. June 19 to 27.

Smith will be instructing the seminar with the main thrust on improving human relations. Among the topics to be discussed are: professionalism in the office, working as a team member, preventing and reducing conflict, adapting to varying management styles, minimizing personality conflicts and updating the skill areas.

To computer impact, word processing, records management and phonogenic skill in using the telephone also will be demonstrated and discussed.

In addition, Smith said, "The written word is very important. Today's trend is to develop the shortest, most concise, grammatically correct and clear message as possible."

Learning how to communicate, learning how to listen and the psychological approach to written communication will each be highlighted — as well as how to become a good manager, how to be supervised and how to develop a sense of company loyalty.

Smith added that the seminar should prove to be valuable in-service tool for area businesses. Cost for the seminar is $45. To register, contact the registrar's Office, Defiance College, by calling 784-4010.

Mrs. Kenneth R. Cline

SHERWOOD — Marriage vows were recited by Shayna Jillene Smith and Kenneth R. Cline in a candlelight ceremony solemnized by the Rev. Paul David Robinson at 6 p.m. Saturday in the Sherwood United Methodist Church.

Nuptial music was provided by Mrs. Lyle Gordon, organist; Mrs. Lynn Bergman, vocalist; and a vocal trio: Scott Langdon, Paul and Gene Schubert, with guitar background.

Mr. and Mrs. Olan Smith, rt. 1, Sherwood, are parents of the bride. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Cline, rt. 1, Mark Center.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white velvet and venise lace. The lace-paneled empire bodice was detailed with high lace neckline and long bishop sleeves. A matching chapel-length mantilla framed her face and she carried a nosegay of daisies, carnations, sweetheart roses and star flowers.

Attending the bride were Mrs. James Metz as matron of honor; Mrs. Dennis English, Miss Chery Ester and the bridegroom's sisters, Kim and Kathy Cline, as bridesmaids; and Randi Hussey, as flower girl.

Their gowns, were dark velvet and light crepe empire waistlined, identical in style, in varied harvest colors. Each carried a nosegay of daisies, carnations and star flowers complementing the color of her gown.

Best man was James Metz and ushers were Gary Smith, Brad Peter, Dennis English and Maury Sims. Carrying the rings was Jeffrey Peter.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Smith wore a two-piece gown of gold and soft beige. The bridegroom's mother appeared in a two-piece beige gown. Their corsages were yellow roses.

The newlyweds greeted over 300 guests at a reception held at the Defiance Holiday Inn. Servers were Ena Ecker, Barbara Schubert, Cheryl Allen, Sue Young, Diana Steffel, Kathy Moses, Becky Dury and Beverly Nolt. In charge of the guest registry were Debra Rosebrock, Julie Mason and Ann Heater.

Both the bride and bridegroom are senior business education majors at Defiance College. They will reside at rt. 1, Sherwood.

The Smith home

11740 U.S. 127

Although Garnet Smith's home may look as modern as the DeRossetts house, it is due to a 1983 remodeling, as the large home was built in 1910.

Smith plans for her home's exterior to be noticed. "In the yard is an authentic sleigh which belonged to my husband's great-grandfather," she says. "He was a blind man, and the horses used to bring him down in that sleigh."

The Yuletide song, "O Christmas Tree," will be appropriate here, as every room of Smith's house is likely to have a Christmas tree which will be decorated according to the color of the room. "I have blues and golds and almond," she says, "but every room has a bit of purple, really. I like purple a lot."

Highlighting the Garnett Smith home will be seven trees of various sizes, each with a decorating style accenting the main colors of the room. Smith says her home leans heavily toward orchids and lavenders and the decor will reflect this.

The main tree will contain a collection of old ornaments, but each room will have its own distinct decor.

A featured attraction will be in Smith's yard, where a century-old sleigh will be decorated for the Christmas holiday. The sleigh, Smith says, has been handed down in her late husband's family.

[illegible] further states that the plaintiff is authorized to appropriate land or an interest therein for pipes, buildings, structures and-or other facilities necessary to operate the pipeline properly.

Acting under lawful authority, the plaintiff deems it necessary to appropriate a right-of-way and easement, with rights of ingress and egress at all times with equipment and the necessary labor force.

The petitioner claims that he will use the permanent right-of-way to construct and maintain the pipeline but that the parties must first agree on compensation.

Defiance attorneys John W. Winn and R. H. Sutphen represent the plaintiff.

June Recognizes BOTH Busi

No, June Spiess does NOT recognize any of the folks standing on the sidewalk in our current Old Postcard photo.

But she DOES recognize the building behind them.

As well she should!

The photo, after all, was taken in STRYKER, the town in which June has now spent 78 of her 81 years.

And the business places in the background ... yes, there are TWO ... have a VERY special place in her heart.

"My mother was the first HAIRDRESSER in Williams County," June reports. "And the door at the extreme left side of the picture led into her SHOP, which was located just north of the grocery store ... right next to the railroad tracks ... and also served as a NEWSSTAND.

"When I was about ten years old, I started working there, selling newspapers, cigarettes, tobacco, gum, ice cream, drinks and lots of other things.

"And after watching my mother at work, I was even able to give a few permanents and do some paper curls.

"There was a window in the wall between her shop and the grocery store, so I saw most of the people in town do their shopping.

"In those days, it was called the HUB MARKET and it was owned by Hank Mignerey and then by his sons, Jim and Harry."

Later on, however, that store meant even more to her.

"From 1943 through '65, my husband Don and I owned the Spiess Market on the north side of the tracks," she says. "At that time, believe it or not, there were THREE grocery stores in Stryker!

"But then we sold it and bought the Hub Market in partnership with Vern and Breva Carr, who'd come from Bowling Green and had been partners with Jim Mignerey.

"It had been remodeled by then ... I'd say sometime in the '50s ... by Lauren Osborne, who was hired by the Mignereys.

"It had been remodeled by then ... I'd say sometime in the '50s ... by Lauren Osborne, who was hired by the Mignereys.

"We sold out in '68 and Don helped start what's now the Quadco Rehabilitation Center and I started serving as an organist for the Grisier Funeral Home here in town.

"But the grocery is still there and now it's called HEARTLAND FOODS."

With that comment, June accidentally answered another of the questions on our rapidly shrinking list.

And what about the man whose name is sewn into the cloth awning above the store in our picture?

"I don't remember ever seeing that awning," she says. "It could have been there when I was a little girl, but I sure don't remember it.

"But I've been the secretary of the Stryker High School Alumni Association for 26 years now and my records show that F. H. Reynolds was one of the four people who graduated in 1885.

"That would have made him 18 years old then and in his early 30s by the turn of the century, when I'd guess the picture was taken.

"He could be one of the three older men in the picture and the woman on the step could have been his wife. But I don't know what he looked like and I'm afraid nobody else around town does either."

June says she has no idea what purpose the small building on the sidewalk might have once served and she doesn't remember ever seeing it.

So that question, along with a few others, remains on our list:

- In what year was the photo snapped?
- Who are the people?
- What was the purpose of the little building on the right?
- What's your connection to this town?
- What else might your fellow readers be interested in knowing about this scene?

For His Growing Collection

Yes, Hal COULD Use A Cap

by Mary Ann Wasserman

Hal Borton of Toledo has found a hobby that brings his occupation ... trucking ... his favorite form of recreation ... camping ... and his childhood all together.

He collects baseball caps.

"My parents have photos of me wearing all kinds of hats and caps when I was a kid," he says.

"I just kind of grew into wearing and collecting them."

Although Hal didn't keep his childhood collection of caps, he's never without one.

"I'm a truck driver for a restaurant supply house and the company gives them to us," he says.

His oldest collectable model ... a red one featuring an embroidered caricature of an eagle holding an American flag and a freedom torch ... promotes the 200th anniversary of the United States.

"I got it from McDonald's in 1976 in honor of the country's bicentennial," he says.

"And then I just started saving hats ... from the Detroit Tigers, from different trucking companies and from any other companies that would give 'em out."

Hal's collection now numbers 138 and it continues to grow.

Most of his customers know Hal saves hats, so he often ends

L. C. DONNENWIRTH, New Washington, was born in New Washington, Ohio, Aug. 11, 1851. His parents were Hon. George and Caroline (Dorr) Donnenwirth. The main history of the family will be found in the biography of Hon George Donnenwirth, of Bucyrus Township. When 6 years old, our subject, together with his parents, moved to Bucyrus, where he remained until 19 years old. He then apprenticed himself to Jacob Seifert to learn the blacksmith trade. Mr. Seifert died at the end of that time, and our subject, with his half-brother William, continued the business. In 1872, he commenced and to them were born the following family Mary E., Thomas C., James E., Robert W., Hugh M.., Sarah E., and Susan N. Mary is the wife of James Morrow, and lives in Auburn Township; Thomas C. resides in Kansas, his wife was Leona Comstock: James E. and Hugh M. are both single and reside in their native township: Robert W. is a prominent citizen in Lykens Township. and is the husband of Abagail Purky : Sarah is the wife of Henry C. Martin, and resides in Montgomery Co., Kan., and Susan is the wife of John Morrow, whose biography accompanies this work. As far back as can be traced. we find the Cory family to he one of more than ordinary intelligence and enterprise. We first notice Aaron Cory, who. braving the wilds of an unexplored wilderness. emigrated to the interior of Ohio when it was but a Territory, in 1814-15, he settled in Wayne and Richland Cos. Thomas Cory imbibed much of his father's energy of character and upright and honorable dealings with his neighbors. He was an influential man and had the respect and confidence of his fellow-men. He was deeply beloved by his family and, when he died which event occurred in 1856 - his death was greatly deplored by the neighborhood, and especially by his devoted wife and family. His wife died during the spring, of 1865. The children of Thomas and Esther (Brown) Cory are all living and all are prominent and respected citizens` in their respective localities. James E. Cory was reared on his fathers farm in Cranberry Township, when he received a good education. During the fall of 1879, the people of Crawford Co., recognizing his ability, selected him to represent them in their State Legislature, which he did to the credit of his county. Mr. Cory is also a member of the Board of County Examiners and has been for the past four years. According to custom. Mr. Cory will at least represent the people of Crawford Co., at Columbus another term, as he gave excellent satisfaction while there before. Mr. Cory is single and makes his home in New Washington. He is a successful carpenter and an intelligent gentleman.

LUTHER COX. farmer and stock-dealer P. O. New Washington; was born May 1, 1826, in Wayne Co.; he is a son of Stewart and Ann (Garretson) Cox, who were parents of seven children. The father was born in 1800, and the mother six years later. They were married in 1824, in Wayne Co., Ohio and their children's names respectively are Luther, Lucinda, William, Mary, Alexander, Sarah and Catharine A. This family came to Auburn Township, Crawford Co., Ohio in March 1839, purchasing 160 acres of land in that Township, and 160 acres in Cranberry Township. While in Crawford Co., Mr. Cox made many good and warm friends. He died in June 1859, leaving behind him a good record. Luther Cox was reared on the farm. His education was none of the best he, being the oldest child in the family, was consequently kept at home a greater part of the time to assist in improving and clearing the place. He was married June 10, 1851, to Lucinda Hudson, daughter of Benjamin and Anna (Willford) Hudson. Benjamin Hudson came to Cranberry Township, from Wayne Co., Ohio, in 1833, and settled on the farm now owned by George Stoutnor. They were among the earliest settlers of Cranberry Township, and, in their early time, did much to influence settlers to locate in the Township. Mr. Hudson is now dead, but his wife is yet living on the old place, with her son-in-law, John Stoutnor. Mr. Cox. by his wife, had the following family: Sylvia A., born Oct. 22, 1853, died Dee. 17, 1870: Catharine C., born Sept. 8, 1855: Edmond O. born Oct. 10, 1857, died March 15, 1858: Cora M.. born July 9, 1866: Mrs. Cox was born .July 31, 1832. At the time of his marriage, he was farming his father's place in Auburn Township. The year after they moved to the place where he now lives, erecting a log cabin, almost where his house now stands. He owns 120 acres of well-improved land in Cranberry Township, all of which is under a high state of cultivation. Mr. Cox is a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and a Democrat in politics. The Cox family are well known in Cranberry and Auburn Townships and are highly respected citizens.

WILLIAM CUMMINS; P. O. New Washington; was born in Crawford Co., Ohio, Feb. 24, 1843. His parents, Morgan and Elizabeth (Smith) Cummins, came to Auburn Township, Crawford Co., Ohio and to them were born the following family: Mary E., Thomas C., James E., Robert W., Hugh M., Sarah E., and Susan N. Mary is the wife of James Morrow, and lives in Auburn Township. Thomas C. resides in Kansas, his wife was Leona Comstock. James E. and Hugh M. are both single and reside in their native township. Robert W. is a prominent citizen in Lykens Township, and is the husband of Maggie Funk. Sarah is the wife of Henry C. Martin, and resides in Montgomery Co., Kan., and Susan is the wife of John Morrow, whose biography accompanies this work. As far back as can be traced, we find the Cory family to be one of more than ordinary intelligence and enterprise. We first notice Aaron Cory, who, braving the wilds of an unexplored wilderness, emigrated to the interior of Ohio when it was but a Territory, in 1814-15, he settled in Wayne and Richland Cos. Thomas Cory inherited much of his father's energy of character and upright and honorable dealings with his neighbors. He was an influential man and had the respect and confidence of his fellow-men. He was greatly beloved by his family and, when he died which event occurred in 1856 - his death was greatly deplored by the neighborhood, and especially by his devoted wife and family. His wife died during the spring of 1869. The children of Thomas and Esther (Bowers) Cory are all living and all are prominent and respected citizens in their respective localities. James E. Cory, was reared on his father's farm in Cranberry Township, where he received a good education. During the fall of 1879, the people of Crawford Co., recognizing his ability, selected him to represent them in their State Legislature, which he did to the credit of his county. Mr. Cory is also a member of the Board of County Examiners and has been for the past four years. According to custom, Mr. Cory will at least represent the people of Crawford Co., at Columbus another term, as he gave excellent satisfaction while there before. Mr. Cory is single and makes his home in New Washington. He is a successful carpenter and an intelligent gentleman.

LUTHER COX, farmer and stock-dealer, P. O. New Washington, was born May 1, 1826, in Wayne Co.; he is a son of Stewart and Ann (Gracecraind) Cox, who were parents of seven children. The father was born in 1802, and the mother six years later. They were married in 1824, in Wayne Co., Ohio and their children's names respectively are Luther, Lucinda, William, Mary, Alexander, Sarah and Catharine A. The family came to Auburn Township, Crawford Co., Ohio in March 1837, purchasing 160 acres of land in that Township, and 160 acres in Cranberry Township. While in Crawford Co., Mr. Cox made many good and warm friends. He died in June 1858, leaving behind him a good record. Luther Cox was reared on the farm. His education was poor, at the best he, being the oldest child in the family, was consequently kept at home a greater part of the time to assist in improving and clearing the place. He was married June 10, 1851, to Lucinda Hudson, daughter of Benjamin and Alsie (Williams) Hudson. Benjamin Hudson came to Cranberry Township, from Wayne Co., Ohio, in 1832 and settled on the farm now owned by George Stroman. They were among the earliest settlers of Cranberry Township, and, at their early time, did much to influence settlers to locate in the Township. Mr. Hudson is now dead, but his wife is yet living on the old place, with her son-in-law, John Stroman. Mr. Cox, by his wife, had the following family: Sylvia A., born Oct. 22, 1853, died Dec. 17, 1856; Catharine C., born Sept. 8, 1855; Edmond O., born Oct. 10, 1857, died March 15, 1858; Cora M., born July 9, 1860. Mrs. Cox was born July 31, 1832. At the time of his marriage, he was farming his father's place in Auburn Township. The year after they moved to the place where he now lives, erecting a log cabin, almost where his house now stands. He owns 120 acres of well-improved land in Cranberry Township, all of which is under a high state of cultivation. Mr. Cox is a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and a Democrat in politics. The Cox family are well known in Cranberry and Auburn Townships and are highly respected citizens.

Crawford County marches in step with timeless tradition

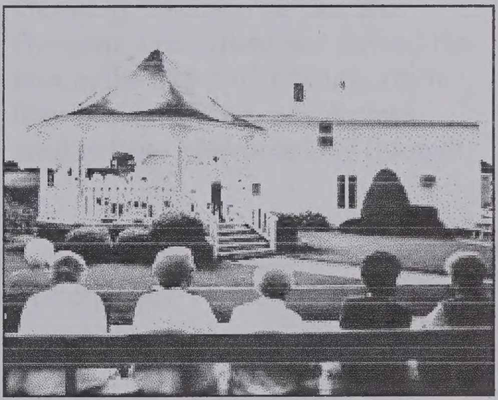
Saturday, September 30, 2000

By Frank Hinchey
Dispatch Staff Reporter

NEW WASHINGTON, Ohio -- The outdoor concerts are free, and everyone is welcome.

There are nights, however, when conductor Scott Hiler takes swipes at uninvited guests.

"It's another beautiful evening, except for the mosquitoes," Hiler said from the gazebo stage on a recent Saturday evening. "I don't know how bad they are down there, but they are eating us alive up here."



Jeff Adkins / Dispatch

A crowd gathers to watch Scott Hiler lead the in Crawford County. The band has been a county staple for much of the past 135 years and is one of the oldest community bands in Ohio. It plays from Memorial Day to Labor Day on the gazebo stage.

Hiler then turned his attention from the small but appreciative audience to the New Washington Band, whose musicians rustled through dog-eared sheet music for the march before the traditional Star-Spangled Banner finale.

A beloved local diversion for much of the past 135 years, the band and its continuous zeal has come to mirror that of New Washington and the rest of Crawford County.

The county was formed in 1820 and is named for Col. William Crawford of Virginia, a Revolutionary War soldier who fought in the Battle of Olentangy near Bucyrus.

Some historians consider that the last battle of the Revolutionary War. Crawford was captured by Indians, tortured and burned at the stake in 1782 in what is now Wyandot County.

Bucyrus, the Crawford County seat, was mapped in 1822 by Col. James Kilbourne, a surveyor from Worthington who gave the settlement its name.

OUR COUNTIES
HI
OUR HOMES

Some say the town was named for an ancient Egyptian city. Others think Kilbourne named it after a Persian general and added "Bu" for the area's beautiful countryside.

Residents of New Washington, also known as "Dutchtown" for the Germans who settled and farmed the area in the mid-19th century, enjoy their 40-piece band, which plays weekly from Memorial Day through Labor Day.

An added bonus for concert-goers -- the New Washington local Farmers Citizens Bank hands out $65 in cash prizes at the end of each performance.

"This is a very close-knit community that backs up everybody," bank president Jay Pressler said of the town, in northeast Crawford County about 70 miles north of Columbus.

Members of the Jacob Uhl family -- among the first settlers in the village founded in 1826 -- organized the band in 1865, according to historians.

"The Uhls were bandsmen during the Civil War, and when they came back, the brothers started a town band," said Joseph Blum, a local historian and a history teacher at Buckeye Central High School.

The band eventually fell to the direction of New Washington native Kenneth Cummins, a trumpet player who led the group for nearly 60 years until his death at 87 in 1998.

"He was very intelligent but very humble," said Herb Kraft, 78, who since 1938 has handled an ancient jury-rigged bass drum and cymbals.

Cummins groomed Hiler, 34, to take over, Kraft said.

"He taught him a few tricks of the trade."

Blum said people such as Cummins, a lifelong student, teacher and mentor, are the hallmarks of Crawford County's personable character.

Crawford County music

Fortunately, Blum said, a college student interviewed Cummins for an oral history of the band just before Cummins' death.

Another oral-history project is under way to cement the county's place in the state's bicentennial celebration in 2003.

County commissioners have formed a committee to interview about 100 residents ranging in age from 70 to 100, including former banker Juilliard Blicke, 97, whose great-uncle was Augustus D. Juilliard, a Bucyrus textile merchant and benefactor of the world-famous Juilliard School of Music in New York City.

Also on the interview list is Corinne Boryczka, 100, wife of the late Adam Boryczka, publisher of the Bucyrus Telegram-Forum.

"He was very active in securing Timken (Roller Bearing) and General Electric to locate here," Boryczka said.

Boryczka said she enjoyed the band concerts she attended during her childhood in Bucyrus.

"The director, a Mr. Sanzo, was an Italian shoe repairman. We would go down to the square on Thursday nights. We always got Foxy's popcorn," Boryczka said. "That was about all the excitement there was in town."

Her friend Helen Picking Neff, 85, manages the oldest continuing business in Bucyrus, the D. Picking & Co., which manufactures handcrafted copper kettles and timpani drum shells.

Neff, too, is on the interview list.

"My father's great-grandfather Samuel was an early settler and had a tavern -- The American House -- in town," Neff said. "They wanted the things the best that they could be for Bucyrus. They were mainstays to their churches and the YMCA and felt strongly about those things that were important to making a community a good, strong community."

AUGUST 7 1884 DEFIANCE CO EXPRESS will remain until October.

—The Express owes the astute chronological-editor of the Democrat an apology for not consulting him before attempting a prediction on the weather.

—Mrs. Dolly Lovejoy and son, Carle, after a three weeks visit whith relatives and friends, left for her new home at Junction City, Ohio, on Wednesday last.

—The trouble would be with a collector of bad debts here in Defiance that he would not find time to sit around on any one man's door step a single moment in a week.

—Our citizens should not fail to give the Agassiz exhibit a call. The efforts of the young men, who have embarked in so laudable an enterprise, should be encouraged substantially.

—A vote was taken on the steamer Waite last Sunday, on the choice of the passengers for president, which resulted as follows: Blaine 121, Clevelane 65, Butler 3, St. John 3, undecided 11.

—Some paper remarks that if people would give half as much attention to their diet as they do to schemes for recovering their health after it has been impaired, they would run very little risk of needing the advice of a doctor or a change of air.

MARRIED.

OPENLANDER—SMITH—At New Washington, Ohio, July 30th, 1884, by Rev. Beebe, MR. CHARLES OPENLANDER, of Sherwood, Ohio, and MISS ELLA SMITH, of New Washington, Ohio.

BANKS—WINFIELD—On Wednesday, July 30th, 1884, at the residence of the bride's parents, at Ayersville, by the Rev. Hawkins, of Lincoln, Ill., REV. C. J. BANKS. of the First Baptist Church, of South Charleston, Ohio, and MISS LILLIAN WINFIELD. The happy couple have the well wishes of a host of friends for a happy and prosperous journey through life. The Express office was remembered by a liberal supply of cake.

A Card.—

Having heard from parties at Hicksville, that some young folks who came over to Farmer to the festival, were not treated well at the hotel in this place, I will say in justice to Mr. and Mrs. Bowman, that if they had acted as ladies and gentlemen should, they would have received far better treatment.

If two of the party who were raised here would just take a look at the past brisoner," and notwithstanding his offering to pay "big money" for his freedom, in assistance with Michael Ziegler, Jr., was escorted to the cooler and turned over to Policeman Jennings.

The prisoner, who gave the name of John Rice, was brought before 'Squire Stout this morning and pleaded guilty as charged in the indictment through his attorney, who asked the lienency of the court on the ground that he was intoxicated at the time the offense was committed, but the court didn't relent, and fined him $50 and costs and 30 days in the county jail, to stand committed until the fine and costs are paid.

Last night the residence of Dr. McKinny, on Holgate avenue, was worked by tramp burglars in a very peculiar manner. The upper half of one of the windows to the room in which the Doctor sleeps had been left down, but the outside blinds were shut. In the night the Doctor was aroused by a noise, and looking up he saw that the blinds to this window were open, and that a ladder was just outside the window, down which was going a man.

Jumping up he grasped his revolver, but before he could fire the prowler was out of sight. Investigation showed that his pants, which had lain on the floor at the foot of his bed, away from the window, had been fished out by the burglars.

Arousing the inmates of the house, on a further investigation two ladders were found on the outside of the window, but the rogues had of course fled.

In the morning the Doctor's pants were found in the back part of the lot, folded up, the valuables of the pockets removed, of course, but all of the pants were there, every square yard of them.

An effort was also made to gain an entrance to the residence of F. W. LeSeuer on Jefferson street. The window was forced open, but in trying to open, the inside blinds Mrs. L. was aroused. She at once called the man who was sleeping up stairs, but before he could get down the villians had fled.

CHRISTOPHER HANES. farmer and stock-raiser; P. O. New Washington; is among the prominent farmers and self-made men of this township, beginning in life a poor boy. His father dying, he was thus early in life left without a paternal friend to counsel and advise, and was thrown out upon the cold world to battle with its tempests and storms without a shilling in his pocket. His only capital was a good constitution and willing hands, which he brought into requisition and to these he is mainly indebted for the condition of things about him as seen today. He was born in Stark Co., Ohio. March 4, 1819, to Daniel and Susanna Hanes, who had twelve children. Christopher worked out by the month to get his start, working six years for Stephen Russell. His school advantages were of an exceedingly limited character. Free schools were not then in vogue. Having saved some money, he in company with his brother John, purchased 80 acres in this township, which they held in common a few years, and. then buying John's interest. He has since added to it at different times, until he now has about 400 acres, upon which are eight orchards. His farm ranks among the best in the township, and is highly productive, he raising as much grain to the acre as any of the surrounding farmers. Stock-raising is given especial attention, and his entire efforts in a business way seem to have been, in the past, crowned with marked success. His wife was Julia A. Smith, who was born in 1822, in Virginia. of well-to-do parents, who, moving West, located in this township and bequeathed to their descendants a liberal patrimony. Eight children have crowned the union of Mr. Hanes to Julia, his wife - George (the eldest, resides at home), Samantha (Mrs. John Martin), Elizabeth A., Frank, Susanna (Mrs. William De Roche) and Matilda are those now living. In 1875, he built a spacious brick farmhouse, 32 x32, with a large observatory, and cellar under the entire building, making the finest farm residence in the township.

DAVID KALB farmer; P. O. Chatfield; was born on the homestead, situated a short distance southwest of Richville, where he first beheld the light of day May 21, 1844. His father, William, was born in August, 1800, in Wurtemberg, Germany, and was married to the mother of David in the year 1828, whose maiden name was Savina Haner, born in April, 1803. In 1833, they emigrated to this State in company with Esquire Hipp and father, making his first settlement in Holmes Co., where he bought 80 acres in the woods, where he built a rude cabin and lived about two years and a half: In 1836, during the month of February, he came to Chatfield Township and bought 110 acres in Sec. 19, and but 3 acres were cleared. For the 110 acres he paid $400. Their outfit for keeping house was not elaborate or expensive; sat on benches and ate their frugal fare, at night resting their tired limbs on rude bedsteads of their own construction. They planted their corn among the stumps and harvested the same with a butcher knife yet they labored on and awaited the growth and development of the country, and lived to see the day when they were surrounded with all the conveniences of life, and a sure competence for their declining years. David remained with his parents until March 12, 1869, when he was married to Catharine Brigle, born in this township Sept. 6, 1843, daughter of Michael and Elizabeth (Sheffer) Brigle; since has resided on the homestead. Has six children - Rosella M., Emma M., Lucy E., Clara O., William H. and John A. Has 340 acres. The family are members of the German Lutheran Church. Of the four children-sisters and brothers - all of them are residents of the county.

GEORGE LEONHART, farmer, New Washington. Is one of the largest land-holders in the township. He was born March 3, 1810, in Alsace, near the river Rhine. He was a son of G George Leonhart. who was born in 1776, and died in 1832. The year following, our subject embarked for the United States to better his condition, although tolerably well-to-do in Germany, yet, having heard such favorable accounts America of the cheap homes and reasonable compensation for labor he severed his relations with the land of his nativity, and set sail for the "land of promise." He came first to Stark Co.,

CENTENNIAL BIOGRAPHICAL HISTORY OF CRAWFORD COUNTY, OHIO

ANTHONY SMITH IS A RETIRED FARMER LIVING IN NEW WASHINGTON AND HIS POSITION OF FINANCIAL EASE HAS BEEN WON BY YEARS OF INDEFATIGABLE LABOR IN THE EARLIER PERIOD OF HIS MANHOOD. HE WAS BORN IN HARDIN COUNTY, VIRGINIA(SHOULD BE HARDY CO), FEBRUARY 24, 1831, HIS PARENTS BEING JOHN AND REBECCA (DAVIS) SMITH, OF WHOSE FAMILY OF EIGHT CHILDREN, OUR SUBJECT IS THE ONLY SURVIVOR. THE FATHER WAS BORN IN VIRGINIA, ABOUT 1785, AND IN THE OLD DOMINION WAS REARED TO MANHOOD, EARLY BECOMING FAMILIAR WITH FARM WORK IN ITS VARIOUS DEPARTMENTS.

HE MARRIED MISS REBECCA DAVIS, ALSO A NATIVE OF VIRGINIA, AND UPON A FARM, THEY BEGAN THEIR DOMESTIC LIFE. IN THE FALL OF 1833, THEY REMOVED TO CRAWFORD COUNTY, OHIO, AND THE FATHER ENTERED THREE HUNDRED ACRES OF LAND IN CHATFIELD TOWNSHIP FROM THE GOVERNMENT. AT THAT TIME, THERE WERE ONLY TWO HOUSES IN NEW WASHINGTON AND NO ROADS HAD BEEN MADE THROUGH THIS SECTION OF THE COUNTRY, SO THAT THE PIONEER SETTLERS BLAZED THE TREES IN ORDER TO MARK A PATH THROUGH THE FOREST. MR. SMITH ERECTED A HEWED LOG HOUSE IN THE MIDST OF THE WILDERNESS AND THEN BEGAN THE ARDUOUS TASK OF CLEARING HIS LAND AND PREPARING IT FOR THE PLOW. HE WAS A FRUGAL , ENERGETIC MAN, AND HAD PLACED MUCH OF HIS FARM UNDER CULTIVATION AT THE TIME OF HIS DEATH, WHICH OCCURRED IN 1845.

ANTHONY SMITH, OF THIS REVIEW, WAS THEN ONLY FOURTEEN YEARS OF AGE. HIS CHILDHOOD AND YOUTH WERE PASSED AT HOME AND HE RECEIVED BUT A LIMITED EDUCATION, OWING TO THE INADEQUATE SCHOOL FACILITIES FOUND IN THE PIONEER SETTLEMENT. AFTER HIS DEATH OUR SUBJECT AND HIS BROTHERS OPERATED THE HOME PLACE UNTIL THE TIME OF OUR SUBJECT'S MARRIAGE IN 1866. HE THEN PURCHASED THE INTEREST OF THE OTHER HEIRS, BECOMING THE OWNER OF TWO HUNDRED AND TWENTY-FIVE ACRES OF THE OLD HOMESTEAD, AND FROM THAT TIME UNTIL HIS RETIREMENT TO PRIVATE LIFE, HE WAS SUCCESSFULLY ENGAGED IN AGRICULTURAL PURSUITS. IN THE FALL OF 1867, HOWEVER, HE SOLD THE OLD HOME FARM AND PURCHASED A BETTER IMPROVED PROPERTY COMPRISING ONE HUNDRED AND SIXTY ACRES IN CRANBERRY TOWNSHIP, WHERE HE CULTIVATED THE FIELDS UNTIL 1878. HE THEN RENTED HIS FARM AND MOVED TO NEW WASHINGTON, PURCHASING THE PRESENT HOME PROPERTY IN WHICH HE YET RESIDES.

ON THE 30TH OF JANUARY, 1866, MR. SMITH WAS UNITED IN MARRIAGE TO MISS ELIZABETH KOEHLER, A NATIVE OF CRANBERRY TOWNSHIP AND A DAUGHTER OF HERMAN AND MARTHA (GUISS) KOEHLER. HER FATHER WAS A NATIVE OF HELSERBERG, GERMANY, BORN AUGUST 2, 1817, AND WHEN A LAD OF TWELVE YEARS, HE CAME TO AMERICA WITH HIS PARENTS, THE FAMILY SETTLING IN CRANBERRY TOWNSHIP, CRAWFORD COUNTY, IN 1833, BEING AMONG THE FIRST RESIDENTS OF THIS LOCALITY. HIS WIFE WAS BORN IN WESTMORELAND COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA, FEBRUARY 1, 1825, AND ON THE 12TH OF NOVEMBER, 1842, SHE GAVE HER HAND IN MARRIAGE TO MR. KOEHLER.

SMITH HAVE BEEN BORN THREE CHILDREN, NAMELY: JOHN H., A RESIDENT OF NEW WASHINGTON; MARGARET M., WIFE OF GEORGE LONGYEAR, OF NEW WASHINGTON; AND WILLIAM H., WHO IS LIVING WITH HIS PARENTS.

HE TOO, BELONGS TO THE LUTHERAN CHURCH, AND IS A MAN OF GENUINE WORTH, HIGHLY REGARDED FOR HIS STERLING TRAITS OF CHARACTER. HE HAS MADE HIS HOME IN CRAWFORD COUNTY SINCE PIONEER DAYS AND HAS WITNESSED THE WONDERFUL CHANGES WHICH HAVE TRANSFORMED THIS REGION FROM A WILD TRACT INTO CULTIVATED FARMS AND COMFORTABLE HOMES. HE HAS SEEN THE FORESTS CUT AWAY, TO BE REPLACED BY FIELDS OF WAVING GRAIN, AND HAS WATCHED THE INTRODUCTION OF THE RAILROAD, THE TELEGRAPH, THE TELEPHONE, THE BUSINESS ENTERPRISES AND ALL THE IMPROVEMENTS KNOWN TO THE OLDER EAST. HE TAKES JUST PRIDE IN WHAT HIS COUNTY HAS ACCOMPLISHED, AND IS A LOYAL AND PUBLIC-SPIRITED CITIZEN.

ANTHONY SMITH.

Anthony Smith is a retired farmer living in New Washington, and his position of financial ease has been won by years of indefatigable labor in the earlier period of his manhood. He was born in Hardin county, Virginia, February 24, 1831, his parents being John and Rebecca (Davis) Smith, of whose family of eight children our subject is the only survivor. The father was born in Virginia, about 1785, and in the Old Dominion was reared to manhood, early becoming familiar with farm work in its various departments.

He married Miss Rebecca Davis, also a native of Virginia, and upon a farm they began their domestic life. In the fall of 1833 they removed to Crawford county, Ohio, and the father entered three hundred acres of land in Chatfield township from the government. At that time there were only two houses in New Washington and no roads had been made through this section of the country, so that the pioneer settlers blazed the trees in order to mark a path through the forest. Mr. Smith erected a hewed-log house in the midst of the wilderness and then began the arduous task of clearing his land and preparing it for the plow. He was a frugal, energetic man, and had placed much of his farm under cultivation at the time of his death, which occurred in 1845.

Anthony Smith, of this review, was then only fourteen years of age. His childhood and youth were passed at home and he received but a limited education, owing to the inadequate school facilities found in the pioneer settlement. After his death our subject and his brothers operated the home place until the time of our subject's marriage, in 1866. He then purchased the interest of the other heirs, becoming the owner of two hundred and twenty-five acres of the old homestead, and from that time until his retirement to private life he was successfully engaged in agricultural pursuits. In the fall of 1867, however, he sold the old home farm and purchased a better improved property comprising one hundred and sixty acres in Cranberry township, where he cultivated the fields until 1878. He then rented his farm and removed to New Washington, purchasing the present home property in which he yet resides.

On the 30th of January, 1866, Mr. Smith was united in marriage to Miss Elizabeth Koehler, a native of Cranberry township and a daughter of Herman and Martha (Guiss) Koehler. Her father was a native of Helserberg, Germany, born August 2, 1817, and when a lad of twelve years he came to America with his parents, the family settling in Cranberry township, Crawford county, in 1833, being among the first residents of this locality. His wife was born in Westmoreland county, Pennsylvania, February 1, 1825, and on the 12th of November, 1842, she gave her hand in marriage to Mr. Koehler. Her death occurred June 22, 1893. Both were consistent members of the Evangelical Lutheran church and were beloved by all who knew them. Unto Mr. and Mrs. Smith have been born three children, namely: John H., a resident of New Washington; Margaret M., wife of George Longyear, of New Washington; and William H., who is living with his parents.

Mr. Smith exercises his right of franchise in support of Democratic principles. He, too, belongs to the Lutheran church, and is a man of genuine worth, highly regarded for his sterling traits of character. He has made his home in Crawford county since pioneer days and has witnessed the wonderful changes which have transformed this region from a wild tract into cultivated farms and comfortable homes. He has seen the forests cut away, to be replaced by fields of waving grain, and has watched the introduction of the railroad, the telegraph, the telephone, the business enterprises and industries and all improvements known to the older east. He takes just pride in what his county has accomplished, and is a loyal and public-spirited citizen.

Dear Erma.

In response to your letter. about the Smith Families. I don't know very much. But I can remember. when I was quite small, of Uncle George Smith coming to visit Grandma as she was living with us at that time. I remember that he came from Mich. and no wife or family was with him. also I know he was blind. and that is the only reason I can see that Grandma Catherine & Grandpa were Guardians for him. He was much younger than Grandma. and Grandpa. Tom. had passed away in 1904.

Grandma's last years were spent with Uncle Zeno and her last year

When very ill with Uncle Charley In Defiance. So he Must have passed away When she was so very sick. My Memory is not very good on these facts.

I do remember of being told That Bertha was a twin. Also I remember that Harry + Vera had at least one baby. I was thinking it was two. before Glen was born. I know Nothing of Their burial on the Farm. Mable Sprow Baldwin would know much more because she Worked for them when ever Vera was sick. and stayed with them often. Mable's brother Merle worked for Harry on the farm also.

Yes: You saw that I was in the Bryan Hospital.

An accident right here at home. In getting in the car I fell. went under the wheel It backed over me. Chewed up my leg quite a ~~f~~ bit. Of course I was knocked out. They took me to Bryan. as it was on Sunday. and my Kids all Dr over there While I Dr at Hicksville. Well I came along all right with the cuts. Came home in 5 days. Was home a Week and by then had a blood clot, back again for 10 days. I still feel the effects of it. But am thankful it was no worse. and we have rode out with the Snow and cold. We still have quite a few mountains of the Snow. But Spring iss around the corner. then we'll all feel better.

Love
Marie

HISTORY OF CRAWFORD COUNTY. - 649

CHAPTER XXV.

CHATFIELD TOWNSHIP-INTRODUCTORY-FIRST SETTLEMENT- INCIDENTS OF THE INDIANS-INDUSTRIES- GROWTH OF VILLAGES-SCHOOLS AND CHURCHES.

THE charms that cluster like gems around the mysteries of the silent past, do not cease with the beginning of authentic history, but linger with multiplied beauty around the strange myths and fairtales that come to its through the lapse of unknown centuries. Ethnology, archaeology and philology reveal to the present age, that, thousands of years before the Christian era-unknown centuries before a means of recording human events had been invented-the human race lived a quiet, nomadic, pastoral life in Central Asia. Their homes and haunts became the source of many a legend or poetic tale, which reveals that primitive man was beset with the same temptations that have infested the existence of ever succeeding generation. Every known field has been carefully searched to clear up the darkness, that antedates recorded history; but the sacrifice of time and labor by the historical investigator, has been almost wholly fruitless, and has met with but little reward except disappointment and defeat, and the early mythical traditions are yet believed to be an imperfect account of what actually transpired in prehistoric times. Since the origin of writing and printing the most valuable invention ever given to the human race-remarkable strides have been made in intellectual and moral advancement. notwithstanding the countless events of vital importance that have been left unrecorded. History is but a record of human experience, which fact renders it of the highest importance to the race, because the probable events of the future can only be foreknown by all accurate knowledge of the detailed affairs of humanity in the past. Men or nations are wise only as they can look into the future and anticipate coming events which cast their shadows before, and this can only be done from analogy with what has taken place in the past. "The proper study of mankind is man," and history is such a study. This places the historian in the light of a public benefactor to succeeding generations; but a prophet-one that can anticipate the future - labors on without the respect or honor of his own country and age.

It might, at first glance, appear that the historian has an easy time in rummaging through dusty memorials or following some Jack-with-the-lantern tradition that constantly eludes him; but he knows that the weight of the responsibility of recording the truth, giving to each item its appropriate and comparative degree of importance, leaving no path partially neglected or wholly unsearched, resisting the demands of bigots who insist in having their names enrolled high on the page of honor, rests upon his shoulders like the sphere of Atlas. Nothing but patient labor brings the desired information. It thus occurs that, in looking over Chatfield Township, much difficulty is experienced in accumulating its past history. Traditions are vague and unsatisfactory, and all accurate knowledge of all the facts is out of the question. It often occurs that no two men who are questioned give a similar account of the same event, thus adding much to the perplexity of the historian, or passing altogether beyond a successful solution. A cheerful readiness to tell everything known, and to volunteer much information of events of doubtful occurrence, is met with everywhere. Men yet living, who were in the township at the time of its creation, cannot recall such tune nor the incidents connected therewith. It is not accurately remembered who were the first township officers, and innumerable events of great interest and importance which occurred in early years have passed beyond the recollection of the oldest settlers. Among the earliest settlers were Silas and Oliver Chatfield, after whom the township was probably named, although this is not definitely known. These brothers, like all the earliest settlers, erected their cabins on the Columbus & Sandusky Turnpike, as early as 1827. They were intelligent men, of English descent, and, during their stay in the township, occupied its different offices. Silas Chatfield was elected one of the Trustees in 1833. and Oliver was elected Treasurer. After a number of years, they sold their farms and moved into some of the counties in the State farther west. It is likely that .Jacob Whetstone, a very successful hunter, who also worked by the day for the settlers, assisting in clearing their farms, was the first to build a cabin in the township. He had a wife and family, who were supported at first almost wholly by the rifle: but, after game became scarce and day laborers were in great demand, he worked a number of years for the neighboring settlers. But this life did not suit his acquired inclination to roam in the forest, which soon caused him to sell his acre of land and journey farther into the wilderness, where an abundance of game was yet to be found. He was one of those wandering hunters who swept over Ohio in advance of the earliest white settlers. He had been raised in the solitude of the woods, and found greater pleasure and profit in hunting and trapping than in those pursuits at which he was a novice. He often said to the settlers that came in after himself that he was the first man to build a cabin in the township and to live therein with his family. He was in the township several years before its creation, and he is remembered to have said on several occasions that the township would have bean named Whetstone in his honor, but for the fact that there was one Whetstone Township in the county already. He lived about a mile and a half northwest of Richville until about 1838, when lie moved West, and what finally became of him is unknown to the citizens of the township. George Stuckman must have located in the township soon after Whetstone. He was also a professional hunter, and was often employed by the early settlers to hunt deer for them. The majority of the earliest settlers were directly from the East, and had been reared in localities where deer and other wild animals were rarely seen. They knew nothing of stalking, a deer, and many of them did not know how to properly keep anal load a gun. They must have deer meat, however, and hence they were accustomed to employ hunters of known skill and experience, often paying them as high as $2 per day for their services, and often receiving, by way of return for such outlays, five or six fat deer, besides a large number of squirrels and other small game. Stuckman was a squatter, and did not own a foot of land, and yet his family lived well, as far as food and clothes were concerned. and were quite intelligent people. He made a great deal of money out of furs, which were usually sold at Sandusky City, where a much hotter market was found than at Bucyrus. He also lived a mile or two northwest of Richville, until the population became too dense to suit him, when he moved farther west. John Henry was an early hunter, who had come to Eastern Ohio about the beginning of the nineteenth century. He lived there for several years, and afterward, at different time, kept moving westward, until he finally located in Crawford County. This must have been as early as 1824, at which time Whetstone and Stuckman must have also appeared. He was a tireless hunter, and gained great notoriety, not only as to his ability to bring in large quantities of fur and game, but also because of his inordinate propensity of appropriating swine and other domestic animals of his neighbors. The enormity of the crime, at that period and under the existing circumstances, was not as great as it is at present, because hundreds of hogs wandered in the woods without any ear-mark: or known owner, and were slaughtered by whomever wanted fresh pork. Henry, however, was accustomed to overstep these bounds and to take hogs with or without ear-marks. often pursuing them to the cabins of the owners. He salted down considerable pork, which was kept for sale to the settlers. It very likely often happened as was observed one day by Richard Davidson to his wife. He had purchased a barrel of pork from Henry after whose departure Davidson remarked. "We are buying back our own pork," Henry lived many years in the township, but finally moved farther west. In about 1828 or 1830, there came in Richard Davidson, David Tiptoe, John Robinson, .John Hamilton, David Clute, Ichabod Smith, John Armitage, Luther C. Flint, David Kimbal, George Champion, John Mitchell, Ira Chase, David Shaffstall, Thaddeus Kent, William McPherson and see several others. These men were almost wholly of English descent, most of them coming from some of the eastern counties, where they had first settled after having come from New England. They were mostly farmers, and entered their land along the Sandusky Turnpike. This was a desirable location, as the road gave them an outlet both north and south. The consequence was that the land along the pike was entered first. and afterward, as the road became lined with rude log cabins, built in small clearings in the sleep woods, the land farther back was taken. Ichabod Smith was Justice of the Peace in 1833, and Richard Davidson was Township Clerk. John Mitchell and David Clute were two of the three Trustees. The records prior to this date are missing.

The early hunters, who came mostly south from Seneca County, lived in the northwestern part of the township. They chose this location because the land was higher and dryer than much of that in surrounding neighborhoods. The western part of the township is quite rolling. and, since the forests have been largely cleared away, and the eye has a chance to roam about, there is no finer appearing country in the county. Those extensive glacial ridges which extend across Northern Ohio from east to west. are found crossing Chatfield. giving the township long but not precipitous slopes. These give the township splendid drainage, a thing that was greatly appreciated in early years. Sycamore Creek drains almost the whole township, although the northern part is drained by small streams, which flow across Seneca Comity into Sandusky River, and the southern part by the northern branches of the Broken sword Creek. The soil is very similar to that in other parts of the county, being largely alluvial in the eastern part, and composed of more clay in the western. The boundaries of the township were changed in 1845, although there was no increase or decrease of territory. The eastern tier of sections was annexed to Cranberry, while the eastern tier of Lykens became part of Chatfield. This change grave the township its present boundaries and territory. Every foot of land can be cultivated, a statement that cannot be made of but two or three other townships in the county.

Many interesting incidents are told concerning the characteristics of the Indians, who camped in the township as late as 1830. They came every autumn and built rude wigwams in the southeastern part, near the cranberry marsh the western edge of which touches Chatfield. They came there at the commencement of the cranberry season, and often remained all winter, the squaws, meanwhile, gathering the berries whenever the weather was favorable while their lords and masters engaged in the manlier pursuit of hunting and trapping. After the berries were picked, they were loaded on ponies and taken to Sandusky City, where they were sold, and the proceeds invested in calico, trinkets and "Sandusky water." Many years before the pioneers came to the county, the Indians had begun picking the berries, which were then taken to villages in the northeastern part of the State. They soon found it very profitable, and labored at it as extensively as agreed with the Indians constitutional indolence. When the settlers arrived and began to domineer with the usual arrogance of the white man over the Indian, and to prohibit him from gathering berries in the marsh, contests occasionally arose. usually settled in favor of the white man at the expense of his red brother. The Indians left the marsh with regret. lingering in its vicinity until necessity forced them to leave. They were largely members of the Wyandot tribe, and temporarily located in the township. coming from their reservation. One day several Indian squaws, on their way from the marsh to their reservation, saw some large, fine pumpkins in Richard Davidson's yard and. through the ordinary process of Indian logic, came to the conclusion that they wanted a few. So, stopping at the cabin. they began making the usual unintelligible signs and uttering the ordinary incomprehensible gibberish, characteristic of none but the native North American. They were offered flour, meal, pork and various commodities but each time their heads were shaken impressively to signify (strange as it may seem) that the offering was not wanted. At last, an old squaw seized Mrs. Davidson by the hand and led her out into the yard where the pumpkins were, where, with sundry signs and grimaces, she intimated her desire of loading a half dozen or so on the backs of her ponies. Mrs. Davidson bowed assent, and the pumpkins were taken away. Davidson owned a fierce dog which appeared to detest the Indians, as it would not let them approach the cabin. One day an Indian youth of about seventeen, evidently on a begging visit to the cabin, unaware of the unfriendliness of the dog, came into the yard before that animal was aware of his presence. At the sight of the boy, the dog bounded toward him, but the young Indian nimbly caught a branch and swung himself into a tree, while the animal bayed in great fury at its foot, making it evident that the youth had had a narrow escape. After a few minutes elapsed, the family came to the door, wondering what was meant by the noise and commotion outside. They laughed as the sight of the treed boy met their gaze, but he did not seem to enjoy or appreciate their levity in the least, for he sat eyeing the dog; with no little concern, evidently speculating as to the best means of escaping the sharp teeth of the enraged animal. The dog was quieted and the boy descended from the tree: but the family had all they could do to prevent the animal from throttling the youth, who, as quick as possible, sought the protection of the cabin. It is also related that one day a party of Indians. mounted on their ponies, came upon a logging party of settlers in the northern part. The two parties began amicably exchanging greetings and tobacco, the latter being extensively used by the redmen, and even more so by the settlers. At last, one of the settlers, whose name is forgotten, and who had acquired a great reputation as a wrestler, declared that he could throw down any Indian in the band, which consisted of about ten. After some communication among themselves, one of the Indians a stalwart young fellow with an enormous chest accepted the challenge, and each began preparing for the struggle. A circle of settlers and Indians was formed. inside of which the two wrestlers took their respective positions, and the sport began. The wrestle was the famous shoulder-and-elbow grip, and. for a long time, each contestant tugged and strained to throw his antagonist on the ground by main strength, or by the less tiresome sleights known to the professional wrestler. They were quite equally matched in point of strength, and for a long time the issue was uncertain. At last, when the Indian was off his guard. the settler made a feint of tripping him, but changed his design just in the act, and with a sudden, powerful strain in the opposite direction cast him upon his back. He was on his feet in an instant and began loudly exclaiming "No good. heap no good," but he was assured by all that he had been honorably vanquished by his antagonist.

As in all new countries, where settlements are made various industries began to arise in different parts of the township. David Shaffstall built a saw-mill on Sycamore Creek, as early as 1834. The building was a frame structure, sided with rough walnut and poplar plank sawed at the mill. It was run by water-power, and was located at a place where there was quite a slope of the land toward the mill on the opposite side from the stream. Often in winter, when the ground was covered with ice, advantage was taken of the slope and the slippery condition of the bank to roll the loss down near the mill. Woe unto the man who got in the way of one of these descending logs. Mr. Shaffstall operated the mill for nearly twenty years, when it was sold to Frederick Hipp. Jr., and his brother-in-law, Simon Neffzer. These men added some improvements, and after running the mill for about ten years, sold it to other parties, when it was soon afterward abandoned. A Mr. Johnson built a steam saw-mill a short distance south of Richville in 1855, in which was an up-and-down saw. This mill did good and extensive work. Sawing was done at the rate of 37 cents by the hundred, or on shares, one-half being taken by the sawyer. After running about fifteen years, it was removed to the vicinity of Bucyrus. The Tiptoes began burning brick as early as 1840. Several kilns were burned and sold to the citizens. Ira Chase also burned brick about the same time, but not quite so extensively. Richard Frisbee and Nathan Anthony began keeping separate taverns on the turnpike, about a mile north of Richville, as early as 1832. It was about this time that a large emigration came directly from Germany to the township, and began entering the land so rapidly that within about half a dozen years all was taken up. Among those who came in at this time were Adam Fouser, Henry Durr, John G. Long, John G. Karg, Sidney Holt, Frederick Hipp, George Brown, Jacob Regala, Peter Weiter, Peter Reidel, E. Biggs, David Shaffstall, Nathan Robbins, George Widdle, Harrison Garton, Jonas Yingling, Lorenzo Bartimess, John Fissell, Samuel Foote, Jacob Gross, Abraham Harmon, Timothy Park, John Scott, Nathan Rich, Jacob High, Benjamin Lindsley, Daniel Brindley, Jacob Bright, Benjamin Hilliar, John Hekenlivly, Hugh Goshorn, Spencer Moffitt, James McKintry, John Burghacher, George Caruthers, Thomas Timony, William Koenig, Benjamin. John and Ephraim Clements, Truman Wilkinson, William King, Benjamin F. Royce, John Scott and his sons Isaac, Solomon, George, William and John H., and many others whose names are forgotten. These settlers located in different parts of the township, and it was not long before scores of small log cabins were erected, and the forest began to disappear before these sturdy pioneers. The two taverns referred to above were located near together on opposite sides of the turnpike. Both buildings were two-story and frame and, it is said they were excellent houses. They had a splendid patronage, notwithstanding the fact that they were located far from any town. There was an enormous travel along the turnpike by settlers in the central part of the State, who came with droves of hogs or cattle, or with wagons loaded with the different kinds of grain, on their way to the large towns in the northern part near Lake Erie. This gave an excellent patronage to the two taverns that often were called upon to furnish accommodations for a score of men, besides their teams and stock. Garton Frislen also opened a tavern in 1833, about a mile north of the southern boundary of the township. Another was built in the extreme northern part. This gave the township an abundant supply of taverns. All these taverns kept open bars, and several stories are in circulation as to criminal conduct on the part of those who frequented the one on the northern boundary. It is related that disreputable men were in the habit of assembling at this tavern to gamble and carouse during the night. It is also alleged, though probably without grounds, that it was a rendezvous for a band of counterfeiters, who had several secret haunts in southeastern Seneca County. A detective came into the neighborhood, where he remained for a month or more, evidently endeavoring to discover the whereabouts of the law-breakers: but he was unsuccessful, or perhaps he was successful in discovering that there were no grounds for the reports. However, after a number of years, when an old shed near the tavern was removed, a number of implements. undoubtedly designed for use in the manufacture of counterfeit coin, were found buried under a heap of rubbish. This seems to imply that there is truth in the report. A distillery was connected with the tavern. Two copper stills, whose united capacity was about thirty gallons, were placed in a frame shed-like building, and whisky of an inferior grade was furnished to those addicted to the use of that drink. The ground grain was purchased at Sandusky City or Bucyrus. The distillery and the tavern, with its evil reputation, were conducted for about ten years, when the landlord found it to his advantage to sell out and depart for another locality. Richard Frisbee was quite an intelligent and prominent man. Somewhere about 1833, he circulated a petition, which was signed by all the neighborhood, praying for the establishment of a post office at his tavern. The prayer was granted, and Mr. Frisbee was appointed Postmaster. This was the first post office in the township, and. after remaining at the tavern until a year or two after Richville was laid out, it was removed to the latter place. This removal took place in about the year 1843, and Dr. A. B. Fairhank received the appointment as first Postmaster in the town. In 1837, Jacob Reidel built an ashery near Richville. After running moderately for about ten years, it way discontinued. Those who made potash found it to their advantage to keep a small stock of goods on hand to he exchanged for ashes, as money was quite scarce: and, the system exchange necessarily adopted in the backwoods, obviated, to quite a great extent, the want of that medium of exchange. It thus occurred that a majority of the asheries were run in connection with stores.

Great trouble was experienced in early years, from the fact that stock wandered away in the deep woods and was lost beyond hope of recovery or remained away so long that its familiar appearance was no longer distinguishable by the owner. The settlers, therefore, soon learned to carefully mark their swine and cattle, as the following taken from records in the possession of Mr. Hipp shows:

"Thomas Johnson's ear-mark for his cattle and hogs. is a square crop off the left ear and a slit in the same."

"John Davidson's ear-mark, for cattle and hogs, is a swallow fork in each ear."

"Adrian Hoblitzell's ear-mark for cattle and hogs, is a slit in both cars."

The following is a transcript of a portion of the records of the Township Clerk, written in 1833;

"Silas Chatfield and John Mitchell and Lloyd Ady and .Jacob L. Gurwell and .Jacob Bunce, and all apeared before me. James Adams, and was duly qualifide within the allimitad time."

The following is also quoted from the same record:

The Trustees of Chatfield Township met on the 11th of November 1833, and laid off the township into three school districts, commencing at the northeast corner of the township and taking a strip two miles wide across the township west, called District Number 1: Number 2 takes the two center tiers; and Number 3 the two southern tiers."

In 1837, the township was laid off into six Road Districts, three on the eastern side of the turnpike, and three on the western side. Changes have since been made in both school and road districts. There are at present living in the township about two hundred families, 190 of which are of German descent, and the other ten English. Many of the Germans, though raised in the township, can speak and understand but little or no English. About two Hundred votes are polled when all the voters turn out stock like hunting, and whisky of an inferior grade was furnished to those addicted to the use of the drink. The ground grain was purchased at Sandusky City or Bucyrus. The distillery and the tavern, with its evil reputation, were conducted for about ten years, when the landlord found it to his advantage to sell out and depart for another locality. Richard Hughes was quite an intelligent and enterprising man. Somewhere about 1833, he circulated a petition, which was signed by all the neighborhood, praying for the establishment of a post office at his tavern. The prayer was granted, and Mr. Hughes was appointed Postmaster. This was the first post office in the township, and, after remaining at the tavern until a year or two after Rickville was laid out, it was removed to the latter place. The removal took place in about the year 1843, and Dr. A. B. Fairbank received the appointment as first Postmaster in the town. In 1837, Jacob Redd built an ashery near Rickville. After running moderately for about ten years, it was discontinued. Those who made potash found it to their advantage to keep a small stock of goods on hand to be exchanged for ashes, as money was quite scarce, and, the system exchange necessarily adopted in the backwoods, obviated, to quite a great extent, the want of that medium of exchange. It thus occurred that a majority of the asheries were run in connection with stores.

The settlers, therefore, soon learned to carefully mark their stock and cattle, as the following taken from records in the possession of Mr. Fligg shows:

" Thomas Johnson's earmark for his cattle and hogs is a smooth crop off the left ear and a slit in the same."

"John Farmhand's ear mark, for cattle and hogs, is a swallow fork in each ear."

"Adam Hellwig's ear-mark for cattle and hogs, is a slit in both ears."

The following is a transcript of a portion of the records of the Township Clerk, written in 1835:

"Niles Chatfield and John Marshall and Lloyd Alley and Jacob L. Garwell and Jacob Rutter, and all appeared before me, James Adams, and was duly qualified within the allotted time."

There are at present living in the township about two hundred families, 190 of which are of German descent, and the other ten English. Many of the Germans, though raised in the township, can speak and understand but little or no English. About two Hundred votes are polled when all the voters turn out.

180 ballots are cast for the Democratic candidates, and the other twenty for the Republican candidates. It is the banner Democratic township in the county. About ten years ago, there were but eight Republican voters. The citizens are thrifty and industrious, and the present valuation of personal property is about $109,400.

The Scotts were prominent settlers in the northern part. The son John H. had been one of the contractor, on the turnpike and besides receiving considerable money for his services, also received a deed for quite an extensive tract of land adjoining; the road given him by the turnpike company a, part payment for his labors. The Scotts lived in the northern part for many years were industrious citizens, and were instrumental in adding greatly to the substantial growth of the township in business industries and general intelligence. After many years, they sold out and moved West. It was in about the year 1838 that Martin & Hilliar erected suitable buildings in the northern part, and began carding wool. The building was frame, and was two stories in height : but the enterprise did not advance to the next higher step in the business-cloth-drssing-but confined itself wholly to wool-carding, which was continued quite extensively for eight or ten years, when the project, for some unknown reason, was abandoned. and farming was adopted, as a more profitable pursuit. About two years after the wool-carding building was erected, John Lucas, a gentleman of English descent, assisted by his daughter, Mrs. Sarah Breston, a widowed lady, began the unusual occupation of rearing silk-worms from eggs obtained in Eastern cities and brought with them into the wilderness with the view of manufacturing silk. Long sheds were erected with suitable shelves on the sides, whereon were deposited the eggs, and the rooms were heated to that degree of temperature necessary for the hatching of the caterpillar and its subsequent life. Here could be seen the wonderful metamorphoses of the different changes from the egg to the repulsive larva or caterpiller, then to the apparently lifeless chrysalis, and finally to the perfect insect or imago. A small worm or caterpillar was hatched from the egg, by the tropical temperature. kept day and night in the room, and then began its life of usefulness under the care and inspection of Mrs. Breston. Seed of the black mulberry (morns nigra) was planted in boxes, to be used when the plants were several inches or more in height, as food for the larva, which fed upon tile leaves. A few mulberry trees were found growing in the woods and the small leafy branches were clipped and taken to the rooms, where they could be kept fresh for several weeks by being planted in moist earth. The most serious difficulty in the successful management of the enterprise was found to be the propagation of mulberry plants, without which the larvae could not live and thrive. Much of the seed when planted did not grow, and the neighbors were asked to assist in the cultivation of the plants, to be paid for their labor and trouble in money or silk thread. This was attempted by many, but there it ended. After the larva became full grown, the, began to spin their cocoons of silk, preparatory to passing into the chrysalis state of development. Thousands of larvae were reared, and set to work at that most important and useful industry of manufacturing silk, of which quite a large quantity was spun. A sufficient number of the healthier chrysalides were permitted to reach the imago or perfect state with a view of the propagation of eggs; but the majority were destroyed, as their lives of usefulness terminated with the spinning of the cocoons. These cocoons were taken, and, after being moistened, the silk thread of which they were composed was unwound, and then rewound on small spools. Hundred of spools of excellent silk thread were thus prepared and taken to Bucyrus or Sandusky City, where they found a ready sale. No cloth was manufactured, although neck-ties and ribbons were woven by Mrs. Breston. The enterprise was something very unusual for the backwoods, and soon attracted no little interest and attention from surrounding neighborhoods. Employment was given to some half-dozen girls who were intrusted with the care of the insects-no light responsibility-and instructed to place within their reach an abundant supply of fresh mulberry leaves, as the usefulness of the larva depended upon their healthy growth, which was rapid and desirable in direct proportion to the degree of their power of consuming food. Loads of people came from miles around to see the useful little insect pass through its various transformations, and to see it spinning its cocoons of shining silk. After the enterprise had been conducted for about twelve years, it was abandoned, because the returns realized were not commensurate with the outlay. The buildings were located in the northeastern part of the township, near the western boundary. Mrs. Breston was a lady of unusual culture, and her people were well bred and well educated. They afterward sold out, and left the neighborhood, and the buildings were torn down and the lumber devoted to other uses. Thus ended one of the most useful industries ever begun in the township.

Two villages have arisen in the township, although their present appearance and condition are widely different from what they were in early years. At one time. they both were promising towns, where men of push and energy resided. but now they are almost wholly deserted by enterprises of a business character. North Liberty was the first laid out, and it was among the earliest in the county. It was one of the many laid out between 1830 and 1835, at which period a sort of epidemic for townmaking spread over the county. It was surveyed and platted in May 1834, by Thomas C. Sweney, County Surveyor and John Henry, proprietor. It was laid out from land on the north half of the southeast quarter of Section 19, Township 1 south. Range 17 east. Forty-one lots were laid out. partly on the east side of the turnpike and part on the west, and soon the little village began to grow. Several years before, a man named Demetry had built a small frame dwelling, on what afterward became the site of the village. John Henry, the proprietor of the land and town, except one lot owned by Demetry, also built a small frame dwelling before the town was laid out. These were the only buildings in town before it was surveyed and laid out. although immediately after that event. Jacob Bibble and John Winterholder erected two dwellings, into which they moved their families. Soon afterward. two other families came to reside in the town, and, when this is narrated, almost the whole history of the village is known. No store nor tavern ever honored the town with its presence, although much talk was freely indulged in, in early years, at a total loss to those participating. Thirty-five will cover the population of the village in its palmiest days. This was something unusual-a flushed condition, so to speak, which could not last long ; for ordinarily, the village enumerated less than a dozen souls, and sometimes was reduced to less than a half-dozen. However, in about 1839, a man named Kronenbach, erected a small building about a quarter of a mile south of the village on the turnpike, dividing the lower story into two apartments, and placing in the front one about $300 worth of notions. The citizens of the village, when away from home, were accustomed to speak of this store as though it was in town, a privilege which was not denied them by Mr. Kronenbach, who was evidently willing for them to get as much satisfaction out of the statement as could be expected. But the statements could not disguise nor conceal the tact that the village was without a store. It was not deemed profitable by mercantile men to place a stock of goods in the town when a rival establishment was doing a fair business a few rods south. Perhaps Mr. Kronenbach had an object in resisting the invitations of the villagers to move his stock of goods to the town. It is very likely that he adopted the practical philosophy of Mohammed reversed, thinking that the town should come over to him instead of the opposite. Both parties were disappointed. however, as the village remained where it was, and the store continued to do a fair business a few rods south. Mr. Kronenbach purchased his goods at Bucyrus, and his stock was increased until it was valued at about $600, dry goods and groceries being added to the original stock. After continuing the pursuit for about twelve years, Mr. Kronenbach was taken sick and died, whereupon his stock of goods was closed out and the enterprise abandoned. This was the first stock of goods brought to the township. The only noteworthy business enterprise ever in North Liberty, was Jacob Reidel's ashery, heretofore mentioned. The village is universally, though regularly. known as "Hog Town," which title was bestowed upon it from the following curious circumstances: John Henry, the proprietor of the town, was the man previously referred to, who was in the habit of illegally appropriating his neighbor's hogs. He soon obtained an ill-repute, which clung to him wherever he went, like Sindbad's burden. The stigma of disgrace could not be shaken off, though there is no evidence showing that Henry tried very hard to accomplish that result; on the contrary, he apparently was not concerned in the least by what his neighbors might think of him. He seemed to have enough to do in packing his neighbors' pork without their consent, to undertake any such new and unusual occupation. Finally, the neighbors began speaking of him as "Hog" Henry, a name he adopted without a murmur of disapprobation, even being heard to speak of himself as "Hog " Henry. One day, Joseph Hall and several other settlers were hunting in the woods near the cranberry marsh, when they suddenly heard the loud report of a rifle about a quarter of a mile distant. The hunters started toward the spot where the report had sounded, and, when within a few yards of that locality, they glanced through the foliage of the trees, and saw a man bending over the body of a hog that had just been shot. The man had a sharp knife in his hand, and was already busily engaged in flaying the dead animal. The hunters stopped immediately when they recognized the butcher. It was "Hog" Henry, who was undoubtedly up to his unlawful depredation of slaughtering and appropriating his neighbor's swine. One of the hunters was so incensed at the flagrancy and audacity of' the act, that he raised his rifle and shot Henry through the thigh. The wounded man fell prostrate upon the animal he had shot. The hunters ran forward to assist the fallen man, upon whom had fallen a swift and merited retribution. He was taken home, his wound was dressed, and after a few months he was out again, as active as ever in his old occupation. After this, the people began calling the village which Henry had laid out "Hog Town," a name it yet retains in honor (?) of the deeds of its illustrious founder. The village is now almost wholly deserted. Its early lack of prosperity was, in a great measure, due to the ill will of the neighbors toward Henry. This man moved West, and has been dead many years.

Richville has had a different history. It was laid out and platted in May, 1840, by the Crawford County Surveyor, and by Nathan Rich, the projector and proprietor. Nineteen lots were laid out on the southeast quarter of Section 18. Township 1 south, Range 17 east; and the village immediately began to grow and thrive, notwithstanding its proximity to North Liberty. Mr. Rich had erected a frame dwelling one and a half stories in height about three years before the town was surveyed. This building is yet standing, though deserted and unoccupied. Mr. Rich was an intelligent man of English descent, who had moved to the township about the time his dwelling was erected. Several buildings went up immediately after the laying-out of the town. John Robbins built the second, and John Pugh, the third. Pugh was a shingle-maker, and erected suitable shops wherein to ply his trade. When business at his shop became dull, he traveled around to the houses of the citizens, soliciting engagements for the manufacture of shingles. He made excellent ones from poplar and other wood, charging from 25 to 50 cents per hundred, sawing, splitting and shaving them out from the rough wood. He prepared a limited quantity of siding in the same manner, first splitting the rough clapboards out, and afterward shaving them down to the desired thickness. He continued the business for a number of years and then moved West. Pugh had a boy who was immoderately indolent. He refused to perform manual labor of any kind, although often flogged severely for such refusal. The youth was incorrigible, but soon developed an unusual power of acquiring knowledge. He outstripped his fellow-students at school, learning his lessons without any apparent effort. All that is known of the family after moving West is, that the boy who was so laze in Ohio, arose by steady degrees through various positions of honor until finally he was elected to represent his district in Congress. This incident is not related with a view of encouraging indolence: neither is it insinuated that idle boys make Congressmen. The obvious moral to be drawn is that if the youths physical energy had been proportionate to his powers of mind. He might have become one of the greatest statesmen in the country. Boys should be cautioned, in reading this incident not to make the mistake, that idleness is one of the cardinal virtues.

About the time that Pugh built his dwelling, Thaddeus Kent, a settler. had come to Crawford County, locating near Bucyrus, as early as 1822. This man who has been one of Chatfield's most distinguished citizens, is yet living in Richville. He is a cooper, and has followed his trade for many years. Nathan Rich, the founder of the town, kept the first stock of goods in Richville, consisting, of about $75 worth of notions used to exchange for ashes, for Mr. Rich owned one of the most extensive asheries in the county, manufacturing as high as twenty-five tons of excellent pearl-ash per annum. He purchased large quantities of ashes from the neighboring settlers, paying at the rate of from 3 to 5 cents per bushel for the same, or giving notions, at the same rate, in exchange. Hundreds of tons of pearl-ash were transported to Bucyrus or Sandusky City, and sold, and handsome profits were realized. The same year that Richville was founded, Mr. Rich erected a large two-storied frame building, in which was placed one set of "nigger-head " stones. The grinding of any other grain but corn was not attempted, and even the latter was not ground to any great extent. In one apartment of the mill was placed a large "up-and-down" saw, and here an excellent and first-class business was done. The services of an experienced sawyer were obtained, and large quantities of sawed lumber were furnished the neighboring citizens. The real growth of the town began with the erection of the mills and the commencement of the manufacture of pearl-ash. Dwellings began to go up in the village, tradesmen began to appear. and the outlook seemed promising. Life and activity were seen in all undertakings. John Robbins kept the first real store in town. He began in 1840, with a general assortment valued at about $800 and continued the business for six years, when he sold out and went to Wyandot County. He was succeeded in 1846, by a man having the same name John Robbins. This merchant kept the largest stock but one ever in the town. He sold a general assortment of goods, realizing fair profits therefrom, and at the expiration of ten years sold out and removed to some other locality. John Quaintance opened a saloon in town soon after it was laid out. It is said that his stock of liquor, on hand at any one time, could be contained in a single jug, Several inveterate topers. living in the neighboring, were in the habit of frequenting this saloon, where their earthly tribulation; were drowned in the flowing bowl. Some of these tribulations were excellent swimmers, judging from the quantity of liquor that was drank. Mr. Quaintance kept a small stock of groceries, among which was coffee. He had in his employ a youth of about sixteen years of age who, it is said. knew enough to take 3 cents for a drink of whisky, and there his stock in knowledge failed. One day Mr. Quaintance, who was engaged in buying paper-rags of the citizens, left the boy in charge of the saloon, while he went to Bucyrus for another jug of whisky. A neighbor came in with a sack of rags; the worth of which he told the boy he would take in coffee. The youth, with that ready confidence which is often found abundantly where knowledge is lacking, weighed the rags, and announced that there were some fifteen pounds. He then weighed the same number of pounds of coffee, tied the same up, and gave the package thus prepared in exchange for the rags. All this was done with that ready assurance which distingusishes the man of experience-one who has tied up thousands of pounds under the same familiar circumstances. When Mr. Quaintance came home and learned of the transaction, his faith in the experience and mental skill of his confidential clerk was hopelessly shaken, he even attempted to point out to the unsuspecting youth a serious error in the exchange: and such conduct on the part of the a employer was not tolerated by the indignant clerk. who announced his intention of leaving the saloon, if such presumption was again attempted. He did not leave, and the presumption is that he overlooked the reprehensible conduct of his employer in doubting the wisdom of the clerk and the financial benefits of the exchange. Mr. Quaintance conducted his saloon for a number of years, and then closed out his stock and retired from the business. Mr. Kaler opened a saloon soon afterward, but did not continue long at the occupation. Liquor has been sold in the village during the larger part of its history. Lorenzo Bartimess, a man of great push and enterprise, erected suitable buildings in 1839, and began the distillation of whisky and brandy on quite an extensive scale. He placed in the building two copper stills: one, the larger, with twice the capacity of the other, containing about eight barrels, and the other four. This became the most profitable distillery ever in the township, turning out a fair sample of whisky and brandy at the rate of from ten to thirty gallons per day. Mr. Bartimess understood the business thoroughly, being a practical distiller of wide experience and he commanded an extensive patronage from the surrounding country, and also sold considerable in neighboring villages

662 - HISTORY OF CRAWFORD COUNTY.

The enterprise was continued, with the exception of several stoppages, until a few years ago, when it was discontinued by the direction and through the intervention of United States officials. The distillery buildings were located just east of the village, where the water of Sycamore Creek would be easily obtained for cleansing purposes. Scores or men living in this and adjacent townships, were accustomed to visit the distillery, where liquor free from strychnine and other alkaloid poisons could be obtained for less money than the impure articles then circulating in commerce. Jugs were taken and filled and when the supply had failed, another visit was made for more. The greater portion of the liquor manufactured was consumed at home.

In the year 1864, Hipp & Robinson erected the present store building in the town at a cost of $600, and placed therein $6,000 worth of goods. They made a fair profit the first year on the investment; but, when the fictitious prices, created during the war, began to decline, often going down 20 per cent within as many days, large losses were incurred. and at the end of five years the partners sold their stock to Markley & Durr for $3,000, and retired, having sunk several thousand dollars in the enterprise. The latter partnership continued in business for several years: but the undertaking was not profitable, and was discontinued within four or five years. Other parties have engaged in the mercantile pursuit at different times. Frederick and William Aschbaugh, for a number of years, kept about $2,000 worth of a general assortment of goods for sale. Jacob Buckman also engaged in the same pursuit with $3,000 worth of goods. In a small building a short distance south of the village, George Maltz, beginning in 1854, carried a stock of goods valued at $2,500 for about ten years. He was wise enough to close out or sell out just before the prices began to decline, having received the full benefit of the rise of goods in value. Michael Hall followed him for about four years, but heavy losses decided his closing out his stock. This has been the extent of mercantile pursuits in Richville. Several of the stores commanded a wide patronage. furnishing large profits to the owners. Shortly after the town was laid out, the post office was changed from Frisbee's Tavern to Richville. As was previously stated, Dr. A. B. Fairbanks, the fiat physician of any note in the town, received the appointment as Postmaster. This office has been in the village ever since, and has always been kept in some of the stores. Dr. Fairbanks had a partner in his profession-a young mail named Detwiler-and this partnership was not dissolved for about fifteen years, enjoying in the meantime an extensive practice. They have been followed by Drs. Pitzell, Urias Tupps and Zeigler, the present resident physician. The village has seen its best days, and nothing is likely to arise to modify, increase or change its present condition of inertness. Frederick Hipp, or "Squire" Hipp, as he is more familiarly known, has done a great deal in the past to add to the material prosperity and growth of the town. He has been elected term after term to the office of Justice of the Peace, and in the private walks of life has commanded universal respect and influence.

One of the most melancholy events falling upon the historian to record occurred in September. 1879, making a deep impression upon the minds of the citizens of the township. David Kalb had, living at his house, a niece, Miss Mary Long, about seventeen years of age, quite pretty and attractive. She had several admirers, among whom was a young man named George Swab, who worked for her uncle upon the farm, and who professed for her the most ardent love and devotion. It is not positively known whether the young lady reciprocated his affection, although the evidence seems to imply that their love was mutual. But the relatives of the young lady, who were quite wealthy, objected to the match, and discouraged the devotion of the lovers in every possible ways. The uncle dismissed the young man from his service; but love was not to be thwarted, and the lovers continued to meet at the residences of the neighbors. The youngman spent one Sunday evening in her company at Henry Klink's, and what transpired at this interview will never be known. The following Monday evening, he went to the residence of the uncle when all the family, except the young lady and hired man were absent. and, having gained admittance to her room. deliberately shot her through the heart with a revolver, killing her instantly. He then coolly went to the barn, and, having detached the reins from the harness, took them and hung himself on a cherry tree in the yard. The hired man was so frightened that he made no efforts to ascertain the cause of the report. Reports of the murder and suicide were soon in swift circulation, and hundreds of the; neighbors arrived on the scene of the tragedy to learn more fully of the affair and to view for the last time the pale faces of the of the dead lovers. Some think that the young man was rejected by her he loved on the previous Sunday night, and that, all hope having died out of his heart, he determined to take his own life and that of his loved one. Others think it was a preconcerted plan of the lovers, who had resolved to die together rather than live separately. The truth will probably never he known, until the light of god's mercy shall smite upon the world with a kiss of heavenly forgiveness.

The first school in the township was taught deing the summer of 1834, by Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson, in her own dwelling, in the village of North Liberty. She taught a term of three Months, and had enrolled some twelve or fifteen scholars, who paid $1 each for the term. A mystery, which the gossips of the village vainly endeavored to unravel, was connected with this lady's life. She stated that she was the wife of Hon. .John Thompson, a Representative in the Ohio Legislature, from Hamilton County, but nothing of her former life, or how she came to be in the village was revealed, any attempt at discovery being kindly and politely avoided. She was lady-like in all her manners, and was well educated, giving excellent satisfaction to the patrons of the school. She taught several terms, and finally left the neighborhood. In 1836, a frame school-building was erected on the turnpike near Richville. This building is yet standing, although, since the erection of the new brick schoolhouse, it has stool unoccupied. John Fissell, was one of the first teachers in the old house. He taught many terms outside of the village after the school buildings had been erected in surrounding districts. Within two or three years after the Richville schoolhouse had been erected. two more were built, one about a little northwest of the village, and the other about a mile and a half south on the turnpike. The one in the northern part was located in the "wind-fall." on Section 7. When the settlers first came to the township, a strip of timber about half a mile wide, extending across the northwest corner, was quite small, none of it being more than a foot in diameter, and the ground was thickly strewed with decaying timber lying in all conceivable positions, showing that a tornado had swept down the trees some twenty-five or thirty years before The schoolhouse. was built in this fallen timber The names of the first teachers are forgotten but, after a number of years. Mrs. Sarah Breston taught several terms. It was not to long before the township was divided into school districts, and soon afterward each had a frame schoolhouse. Chatfield had perhaps fewer log schoolhouses than any other township in the county, obviously from the fact that they were built comparatively late, and at a time when sawed lumber could be easily obtained, thus avoiding the necessity of using logs. The township schools are taught largely in the German language, several of them ruling out the English language entirely. The schools of the township are more thorough than might be expected. John H. Davidson has taken an active interest in educational affairs, and has done much to better school advantages. He has taught frequently, and was the first teacher in the new brick schoolhouse. Richville has educated and furnished to this and adjacent townships some twenty teachers some of whom have acquired a wide reputation as skillful and efficient instructors.

As early as 1832, the Methodists began holding meetings in those homely and inconvenient. though pleasant places-the cabins of the settler. Ministers of all the commonest religious denominations, came from Bucyrus and surrounding, townships to organize societies for the benefit of the settlers morals. The German Lutherans and German Reformers organized societies immediately after the arrival of the German emigration from the old country. The meetings were held in cabins until 1837, when the two last mentioned societies obtained a large log cabin intended for a dwelling and having sided it with black walnut lumber, dedicated it to the service of God. It was used for many years, but was finally abandoned by the religious denominations and is at present devoted to German school purposes. In 1844, a Baptist Church was built on the turnpike in the southern part. This building is yet standing, and near it is a quiet little cemetery where beautiful marble shafts mark the last resting place of Chatfield's earliest and most beloved citizens.

Across the road. on the opposite corner is a fine new Schoolhouse-one of the best in Chatfield. The two German Church societies referred to above erected at an early day a building in which to worship, locating it in the northwestern corner in the windfall. The building was a large, almost square structure with one door and four windows, and was constructed largely from black walnut lumber obtained at one of the saw-mills in Seneca County. This became one of the best churches in the township. An early revival increased the membership to such an extent that the building was scarcely capable of containing the congregation that gathered there on almost every Sabbath. A Sunday school was organized and the children were instructed regarding Biblical truths, as seen from the stand point of German Reformers and Lutherans. These two denominations continued to worship together until a few years ago, When it was decided to divide the congregation, one faction to keep the old Church, and the other to erect a new one in the northern part of the turnpike. This division was made for two reasons: one being that the house was too small and homely for the congregation, and the other that the two denominations thought it better for each to own a church of its own. The division was therefore made, the Lutherans retaining the old building and the Reformers erecting a new one of more imposing appearance a short distance east on the turnpike. The Dunkards erected a church just across the line in Seneca County, near the northwestern corner, which obtained many members from Chatfield Township. It was built about 1846, and after remaining there for many years, was moved across the line in Chatfield. A number of years ago the old building was succeeded by a new one erected near tile residence of John Burgbacher. The Methodists had a large fine church in Richville, which has a larger membership than any other in the township. Chatfield boasts of having five churches, two of them being brick. The Columbus and Sandusky Turnpike has ever been the great aortic artery of the township. It has been of the greatest value especially in early years, affording an easy outlet either north or south, and for many years it was the only road in Chatfield. It divides the township into two unequal segments, passing north and south a short distance west of the center, the course of the road lying a few degrees east of north. It is extensively traveled by the citizens of the county, and by those in the center of the State on their way north by wagon.

Dear Mrs. Weaver,

I just found your ad in the September 1975 Helper--I always let my Smiths go until last!

My husband's ancestor, Abraham Smith, born 9 May 1837, in Crawford County, Ohio, had an older brother named John. According to the 1850 census of Crawford County, this John would have been born ca 1832 in Ohio.

Abraham Smith was married 13 February 1859 to Rebecca A. Shoe. I don't know the location of their marriage, but their daughter, Luella Smith was born 1 January 1860 in Defiance, Ohio.

Luella Smith was married 9 March 1882 in Defiance to Charles Sumner Core (b 4 July 1856 Bucyrus, Crawford Co., Ohio).

I realize this is a long shot, but thought since you live in Defiance, maybe this is the same Smith family. If not, I have copied information on all the Smith families in the 1850 Crawford County census, and will be glad to send you information on all the Johns listed.

Do you know of any Core families living in Defiance or Sherwood? My husband has a distant cousin on his Smith side--Olive Weisgerber, who lives in Defiance, but so far I haven't been able to contact any of the Cores.

I'd enjoy hearing from you if you think we might be after the same Smith family.

Sincerely,

Ruth Ann Russell

February 20, 1976

Dear Mrs. Russell,

Thanks for your response to my ad about the Smiths. I'm like you..I always put the Smith researching off until last.

I don't think that there is any connection between your Abraham Smith and my John Smith:

John Smith was born 1785 in Virginia, married Rebecca Davis Nov. 12,1810 in Hardy Co.,Va. and came to Crawford co.,O. in the fall of 1833 and resided in Chatfield Twp., New Washington,Ohio. Their children were:

James b. 1811 in Va.(came to Def.Co. 1851..my gt.gt. gfr.)
Elizabeth b. 1813 Va.
John b. 1815 Va.
Silas b. 1817 Va.
William b. 1819 Va.
Mary b. 1821 Va.
Julia Ann b. 1824 Va.
Anthony b. 1831 Hardy Co.,Va.

But coincidence has won again...through our Smith relationship we have Core relationship...Catherine Smith(my gt.gmr's sister) married Tom Haver.. they had a son Edgar Haver..whose dtr. Marie married Charles B. Core and they reside at R.R.1 Sherwood,Ohio. Also know that their son John Edgar Core,R.R.1 Sherwood,Ohio has visted Crawford County,particularly in the area around Sulphur Springs to find out about the Cores! Perhaps if you would write to John he could help you out on the Core side of your family...

Also by coincidence..I knew Olive Weisgerber..she passed away recently. Also know her son Fred and several other members of her family.

If there are any Defiance County records from 1909 on that you need.. perhaps I could find them for you. I am Director of Nurses at the Defiance County Health Department and could easily search for you in our vital records.

Hope I have helped you in someway..if only by putting you in touch with the Gores.

I have researched the Censuses for Crawford Co. and have to get busy on Hardy Co.,Va. Know I should try to be more specific in my ad..other names I have trouble with are: H emlinger(which is an unusual name) and my husbands family name Weaver.. think that there are about as many Weavers as there are Smiths....

Lucy Weaver

Dear Mrs. Weaver,

Thanks so much for your letter. It's too bad our Smiths aren't the same. Isn't Smith an awful name to work on? I felt very fortunate when I found that our Abraham's father's name was Augustus. I was afraid it would be Jacob or John! I have to do some research on Augustus, now. But, I think I'll get to the Cores first. I certainly appreciate your giving me the address of John Core, and I'm going to write to him. Maybe he can give me a couple of clues.

I hadn't known that Olive died. I wrote to her several times about the Smiths, and she sent me such nice letters. My mother-in-law isn't much for keeping in touch with people, and she didn't write Olive very much. We have some pictures of Olive when she was young, and she was quite pretty.

I appreciate your offer to check your records in Defiance. The only thing I really need is a death record for Abraham B. Smith. He is supposed to have died in Defiance County, possibly in the town, on 11 July 1908. And, someday, when I find the dates, I'll need the records for Jacob and Mary Core.

There are a couple of Hemingers in our phone book, but no Hemlingers. And, lots of Weavers.

I'll make a note of your Smith family, and if I run into anything that is connected, I'll let you know.

Sincerely,
Ruth Ann Russell

PS, Since your Health Dept. has records from 1909 on, do you know where I could get the earlier records? The State Health Dept. also has the records from 1909 on, don't they?

P.S. Just thought of this — looking at your group sheet. In 1820 Census your John Smith of Hardy Co. would have 4 boys and 1 girl under 10 years of age. I can see from my notes which one this is. Looks like his neighbors were Andrew Summers, Avery? Ships? and Chas. Sellers. Hardy Co. in 1820 did group names by initials so not as easy to track as Hampshire which wrote them down as they came.
However, if you can find a neighbor with an uncommon name who stayed in one place for several generations (the way I used my Barnhouse name) you may make some progress. I was quite surprised to find my Lyons so far West in what is now Grant Co.
for when my ancestors were there it was Hardy Co. Once I knew to look for New Creek, it became easier to find the right ones. I got the Census microfilm from our public library who gets it from Nat. Archives.
over

I'd check the 1830 census also for probable neighbors, also the 1810 for same neighbor's names so maybe you can figure out the Smith (or Davis) parent. When you find certain names that appear in at least 2 census as neighbors, check land transactions for witnesses (also location) in Smith purchases or sales to ascertain their location and possibly family relationships. Hope this isn't too confusing, but it certainly worked for me. Neither of my Smith estate ~~the census and~~ land sales gave location, but transactions showed the people who purchased lived on New Creek; the census showed they were neighbors of these Smiths.

at the sales

Also, someone has apparently joined DAR on this Joseph Davis. Why don't you write & ask who did & what they have on him. With a little juggling of dates he could be your ancestor or perhaps brother of yours.

Dear Mrs. Weaver,

In the September 1976 Genealogical Helper magazine you requested information regarding John and Rebecca (Davis) Smith. Just recently I have been able to place My Smith Family in the New Creek area (previously both Hampshire and Hardy Counties, now Mineral and Grant Counties) of then Virginia, now West Virginia.

Am I correct in assuming that Rebecca Davis was the daughter of Elijah Davis whose Will was presented in 1813? Do you know whether they lived in the New Creek area?

I believe my ancestor Abraham Byers Smith (1796 - 1845) was the son of John and Mary Smith and had brothers John and Henry. John Sr.'s estate sale was held in 1834. His wife apparently predeceased him. Some who attended the sale were: Barnhouse, Sturman, Vandiver, Barrick, Rawlings, King, Murphy, Kuykendall, Reuben Davis and others. Probably all neighbors. William Welch was administrator.

Abraham Smith married Mary Ann Lyon (1796 - 1876) on October 16, 1821 in Hardy County. Mary Ann was the daughter of James and Mary Dent Lyon. (Mary's sister Rebecca Dent married Lt. Joseph Davis, Rev. War soldier.) The Lyon family first lived in the area of now Keyser, W. Va., then moved farther south on New Creek to what is now Greenland, W. Va. James is buried there. Abraham and Mary Ann Smith left the area about 1845, went to Tyler County where Abraham died. Mary Ann and her children later moved to St. Marys, W. Va. in Pleasants County.

In looking at the names of Elijah Davis's children, I see many of the same names as Smiths. Two of the more unusual are Absolom and Mariam. As Mariam Davis married into the Secrest family, again I find names common to my Smiths. Valentine was the name of Mary Ann and Abraham's eldest son.

Would appreciate hearing whether you think we are researching the same ancestors. I'll be happy to share whatever information I have. An S.A.S.E. is enclosed for your convenience.

Sincerely

Dear Mrs. McFarland,

Thank you for replying to my ad in the "Genealogical Helper". I am never very hopeful when I place an ad about my Smiths so it is always a pleasant surprise to receive an inquiry.

I have very little information to go on. Will send you a family group sheet. All I know is that John Smith married Rebecca Davis in 1810 in Hardy Co.Va. I do not know the names of the parents of either one. Perhaps the names of their children might fit in with your information, although they are fairly common names. When you mentioned that Rebecca Dent married Joseph Davis.. that sounded hopeful. Often a child was named after the mother so my Rebecca Davis might be their child, particularly since she was born in 1788 and her father could have been in the Rev. War.

James Smith, the first child of John and Rebecca Davis Smith was my great great grandfather on my mother's side. I have the information on his brother Anthony from an article in the "History of Crawford Co.,O. He mentioned that his parents were John and Rebecca Davis Smith,but did not mention who their parents were. Our family Bible only recorded the names and birthdates of the children..no other information.

Have hunted through Hardy Co. documents to no avail..found many Davises and Smiths..but it is difficult to ascertain which belong to the family.

Do you know the Edward Hutchins family of Granville? Their daughter Joanne worked with me for fifteen years as a public health nurse and her twin sister Alice resides in Defiance County.

If you feel that there might be any connection between our Smiths.. please let me know..

Sincerely,

Dear Lucy,

Your letter has just arrived and although my replies are not usually so prompt, rain is pouring so can't be outside and will answer while the Smith subject is foremost in my mind.

It is unlikely that your Rebecca Davis is daughter of Rebecca and Joseph Davis. From West Virginians in the Revolution: "Lt. Joseph Davis born Charles Co. Md., died Hardy Co., Va. Sept 16, 1831. Resided in Hampshire Co., during the Revolution and there married Rebecca Dent. Served as Lt. in Co. 2 of Col. Daniel Morgan's 11th & 15th Va. Reg. Given land grant in Loudon Co., and settled there soon after his marriage in 1791." I know the Dents were also from Maryland. There is a book Charles County Gentry by Harry Wright Newman which I haven't seen, but am told it contains "Dent" families so it does appear both the Davis and Dent families were from the same Maryland area.

From Sage & Jones Early Records: Hampshire County, Va. I find that Felix Davis married Sarah C. Smith, Peter Peters, bond. Apf 7-25-1825. Also James Davis married Eleanor Yates. La. Gabriel Yates, Apf, bd. 4-26-1825. Peter Peters (wife Mary) apparently lived on the South Branch (so did some Davis families) but Abraham Peters lived on Patterson Creek (that is close to S. Branch) as did John and Ann Davis. Abraham Peter's wife was Mariam (printed Marian in one place) which is a most unusual name that shows up in my Smith family. There was a Peter Peters' Will proved 3-9-1773 but he had a grandson Peter Peters who no doubt is the one mentioned above. The Will of John Peters proved 2-26-1849 mentions a daughter Permelia Ann (among others), the Exec. is Joseph L. Smith, Sec. is Stephen Smith. I find a Theodocia Parmelia Smith in my family who died in 1859. This Joseph & Stephen were the sons of Timothy Smith (wife Ann) whose Will was proved in Hampshire Co. 4-14-1869. Timothy Smith owned land on Elk Horn Run. I see in the gazetteer that Elkhorn Rock was a summit on South Fork Mountain in Hardy Co. Gets confusing doesn't it? Could use a computer, but I'm convinced they did all inter-marry.

Under the Davis' Wills of Hampshire Co. is Elijah Davis 5-27-1813; pr 11-15-1813. Wife Ann. 10 ch., 1.Thomas, "eldest son", 2.John, "2nd", 3. Elizabeth Hellyer, "eldest daughter;" 4. Ann Siramons, 5. Meriam Secrest, 6. Absolom, 7. Attelia, 8. Sarah, "youngest daughter;" 9. David, 10. Elijah "2young sons." Exec, wife and "friend" Thomas Davis. Wit. Henry and Stephen Hickle and John Reed. Obviously this was not your Rebecca's father. I think this Meriam Secrest and the other Mariam Peters are the only ones with that first name in the book.

Sam B. Davis Sr. 11-19-1835; pr 5-25-1840 wife Ann "last wife." 10 ch., 1. Nancy, 2. Sarah Matilda, 3. Granville and 4. Jethrow, "four youngest." 5. Alfred, 6. Mary Barker, 7. Eliza Ann, 8. Jane, 9. Joseph Warthers, 10. Nancy Baker. Children by 1st wife taken care of. Exec. Reuben Davis and friend Nath. Kuykendall. Wit. Thomas Jones, Thomas Carnell, and R. Davis. (Something must be amiss here - if he is Sr, where is Jr.?)

Am certain this Sam B. Davis lived near my Smith ancestors in New Creek area of then Hampshire Co. (now Mineral Co. W. Va.) as both Nathaniel Kuykendall and Reuben Davis attended Smith estate sale. John Smith"s estate sale was 10-25-1834. I believe he was the father of my ancestor Abraham Byers Smith (b 1796) who married Mary Ann Lyon. Had brother John Smith (b 1797) who married Nancy Ann Parish and brother (Henry) Henry Smith (older) who married Sarah Elizabeth (Sally) Athey, (they 1 later lived in Hardy Co. on New Creek as did Abraham and Mary Ann.) From the close proximity in ages and people who attended the estate sales; I believe John Smith Sr. had a brother Benjamin whose estate sale was 9-28-1827. His wife was Elizabeth and there were sons Peter and Solomon. At Benjamin's sale a Rebecca Smith bought several items. This is too early to be my Rebecca, I think you may claim her.

Looking at the 1784 Hampshire County Census it appears that there are a James and John Smith living in that same general area (the Barnhouse family lived in that one area for several generations - I look to see which Smiths lived nearby to tell which were my ancestor Smiths.) I suspect one of these was the father of your John Smith, the other father of my John Smith. Anyway, I think we are researching the same general Smith and Davis families. I will not have time to look into the Davis family in Maryland, but if I run across them in connection with my Dent line, will copy it down. I can see so many interrelations of families in these old Hampshire Co. records, but it is really too complicated to sort out. Just realized that it is possible that your John could be a son of Benjamin but unlikely as son Solomon married Martha Roberts in 1825. Somewhere I read it was the custom that the elder sons left (usually going West) and the younger stayed behind to work the farm and care for the parents. If you want to know where I found any of this other information I'll be happy to furnish my sources. My real Smith progress was made through information given me regarding the Lyon family.

Will close by giving you the names of Abraham and Mary Ann Smith's children. All were born in Hampshire and Hardy Co. If I run across anything that looks promising for you - will let you know. Will appreciate it if you do likewise.

Mary "Ann" and Abraham were married by Wm. Welch in Hardy Co. on October 18 or 16, 1821.
Mary (Hines), 2. Valentine, 3. Elizabeth, 4. James, 5. John E.,
6. Rebecca (Sunderman - she is my gr. grandmother), 7. Emanuel,
8. Ann (Miller), 9. Henry, 10. Joseph Dent.
I have all their descendants up to 1923.

Good Luck!

Dear Mrs. Weaver,

I would like to acquaint you with some information uncovered while on a recent researching trip. At the Keyser, W. Va. Public Library are the J. C. Sanders papers. He was a local historian, now deceased. In Volume I of his papers was a newspaper clipping entitled "History of the Davis Family - One of the Pioneer Families of Mineral County." As you may know, Mineral County was taken from Hampshire County in 1866.

The librarian ascertained from an article on the back that it was published in August, 1941. She thought it was from the Mineral Daily News. The article was too lengthy to copy in the short time I had. There was no zerox machine, but they do have all Sander's work on microfilm. (A microfilm copy is also located at the West Virginia University Library in Morgantown, she said.) I was going to have several copies made from the microfilm, however, the reproduction was so poor I took but two and they are only partly legible with a magnifying glass.

Of course my interest in the article was Rebecca Dent who married Joseph Davis so I copied that portion by hand. From what I can decipher of the rest, the Davis family came from Wales and settled in Charles County, Md. The father, Joseph Davis (1729-1792, I think) married Mary Barker. He was a surgeon in the Revolution and had five sons in it also. Two of the sons died during the War, the remaining moved to Virginia and at least some settled the area of Antioch in now Mineral County. That isn't far from the Grant County line which was taken from Hardy County in 1866. According to the article, all the Davis families of Mineral County can trace their ancestors to these brothers. Their names appear to be Samuel Barker Davis, Notley Davis, Noble Davis, Randolph Davis, Jesse Davis, Joseph Davis, a Mary, perhaps a Joel, and another I can't read. This Joseph and Rebecca Dent Davis' oldest child was Reuben Davis (1792-1868.) Reuben was Sheriff and active in public affairs. He also attended the John Smith Estate Sale I mentioned to you previously so I am confident that these were my Smiths. I was told that Joseph Davis is buried near Antioch. If that name isn't on your map, can only tell you it is in the general area of the Nancy Hanks monument and sometimes called the Patterson Creek area.

Joseph Davis did die in Hardy County according to this account, but I can't make out why he was there, it is tells. The article gives the descendants down through two or three generations. Your Rebecca would be the right age to be a daughter of one of the brothers. As you said, the Smith names are so mommon I can't tell from that.

I did find a sheet listing the children of Henry Smith who married Sarah Athy. He was a brother of my Abraham, but 20 years older. They lived in the area near Scherr which was then in Hardy County.

Sorry I cannot furnish you with all the information contained in the article, but did want you to be aware of its existence.

Sincerely,

Barbara S. McFarland

Dear Genealogists:

I got your names from the May-June issue of the Helper. Please excuse the use of carbons. When dealing with a surname like SMITH, it does seem the only way to go.

I am searching for the parents of David W. SMITH, b. 2 December 1783, Delaware County, Pa.; living in Morgan County, Oh by 1819; still living there in Bloom Township in 1860; married to Mary ___________. Known children Sidney (a girl) who marries SHILLING then GRUBB, Johah or James, Charlotte and Perley B. J. SMITH (A male and my ancestor). Perley born 3 Feb 1839, Morgan County, Oh; married Mary __________; moved to LaBelle, Lewis Co., Mo by 1878.

Do you know the name of David SMITH's wife?
Do you know the name of Perley B.J. SMITH's wife?

Is anyone making any attempt to keep a card file or other sort on the SMITHs of Ohio?

Do any of you know the current address of Lt Col Roy K. Smith who published his chart in the Ohio Geneal. Soc. Report in 1976? His SMITHs came from Morgan Co., Oh. He was living in Wiesbaden, Germany in 1976.

I am always happy to share research and will answer all letters promptly. Will be gone on a trip 7 July to 25 July.

Sincerely,

Dear Pat,

Thanks for your response to my recent ad in the "Genealogical Helper " in regard to SMITH.

I can not help you with your David W. Smith, but will keep your letter on file for comparison with other Smith inquiries..perhaps someone will write that has your information. This has happened with some of my other lines.

My earliest SMITH is none other than a JOHN SMITH, born about 1785 in VIRGINIA..who married 12 Nov. 1810 in Hardy Co. Virginia, Rebecca DAVIS. In the fall of 1833 they moved to Crawford Co.,Ohio. John died about 1845. Their eldest son James born 1811 came to Defiance County about 1850. This was my great great grandfather.

The Ohio Genealogical Society has an ancestor file in its library in Mansfield,Ohio. Their address is P.O. Box 2625 Mansfield,Ohio 44906. They have a newsletter and publish queries. Dues are $12 per year. Perhaps the Soc. would have the current address of Lt. Col. Roy K. Smith.

Good luck..if I run into information on your branch of Smiths ..will forward the same to you.

Sincerely,
Lucy

Dear Mrs. Weaver,

I saw your add in the "Helper" and was very interested in the names John Smith and Rebecca Davis. Both of these are also familt names of mine. I am sending a family group sheet of these families in hopes that there may be a connection. If you see one please let me know, or if you know of anyone working on similar lines let me know that too. Thank you for your time and trouble and success in your searches.

Let me know your Hardman line. There is a LARGE Hardman reunion every fall near Smithville, Ritchie Co. - I can get you in touch with many of the Hardmans.

I traced the Smith family for my brother-in-law. Aaron is as far back as I can go - but I have many branches.

Among his children were Jeziah, Nimrod, Aaron, Benjamin, Mary, Nancy, Clara, Lettice, Chloe, Rebecca.

One of my "grandmothers" was Lettice Smith who md. Phillip Langfitt before 1760. I am searching for her parentage.

Dear Mrs Weaver,

I see in the Genealogical Helper you are researching Smith in Hardy Harrison Co - Va.

I am trying to find out if this Daniel Smith had a family - may be you can help. This man came from Berks co. and served with other men like Stonebraker and others from Penn - Flying Camp (PA. Md).

My Great Great Grandfather was Daniel Smith born in Penn Dec: 27, 1786; died Sept 21, 186 Alamo Montgomery Co Ind. Married Christina Stonebraker (Steinbrecher) Born 20 oct 1787. Northumberland Co Pa. died 6 Sep 1852 Alamo Ind. They were married 1806 Rockingham Co Va.

There children were I assume Daniel 1807 Samuel H 1809, Elizabeth 1811 VA Rockingham catharine 1813 rockingham, Joseph — urbana Ohio Sarah — — William S. 1822 VA.

My Great grand mother Catharine had a child Abigail in 1833 Virginia - my grand father - Abigail brother was born in Alamo Ind 1839. We cant find out who Catharine married, She had to married a Smith, for our name to be Smith. My grand father is Named Francis Marion Smith Abigail married Shanks Catharine later married Stonebraker Alamo then a Tittag in Alamo. These familys were in Butler Co. Ohio. then to Ind-

I would appreciate it very much if you could tell me any thing about this man. The story doesnt say any thing about a family. It does say that he lived in Harrison County Va and at a good time for my Smiths to be there 1833. may be? They did live in Rockingham. Then may be Harrison Co. be for going to Ohio and Ind.

Sincerely,
Theodore J. Smith

Dear Mrs. Weaver:

I saw your ad in the Genealogical Helper for January-February 1979 and wondered if we could have a DAVIS connection.

My grandmother, Lovey Henrietta (Carpenter) Betts was born in Jo Daviess County, Illinois in 1854. According to her death certificate her mother was Namena Davis and her father was George Carpenter, born in 1821 in New York. The death certificate is hand written and the "i" is not dotted, so the Davis could be Daves.

If it is Davis, could she have any connection to your Jo. Daviess County relative? I can't find her in the 1850 census for Jo Daviess County, so she may have come later or missed being counted. I have come to a blank wall in Jo Daviess County.

I will very much appreciate your answer. Enclosed is a self addressed stamped envelope for your reply. Thank you.

Yours truly,

Dear Mrs. Brunner,

My apologies for not answering your letter sooner.

My ad was a bit confusing. The Jo Daviess County connection was with the Iver Jensen family. My DAVIS was Rebecca Davis, born about 1788 in Virginia, who married John Smith 12 Nov. 1810 in Hardy County. Va. They came to Crawford Co. Ohio about 1833. I do not know the names of Rebecca's parents.

I will keep your letter on file and if any of my Davis correspondents have a connection with your Davis..will let you know.

Thank you very much for answering my ad in the "Genealogical Helper." Sorry that I could not help you at this time.

Dear Mrs. Madison,

I read your querie in the OGS newsletter sometime ago and decided to write regarding my SMITH family.

JOHN SMITH born about 1785 in ________ Virginia, married 12 Nov. 1810 Hardy Co. Va. to Rebecca Davis, dau. of?? They came to ~~Crawford Co. Ohio~~ in the fall of 1833 and settled in Chatfield Twp. near New Washington, Ohio. Chn: James 1811; Elizabeth 1813, John 1815, Silas 1817, William 1819, Mary 1821, Julia 1824 and Anthony 1831, all born in Virginia (taken from Smith Family Bible)... Would like name of John's parents and also Rebecca's and county of birth. Have researched Hardy Co. Va. but have no definite link.

Any clues in your index of SMITHS IN OHIO??

William Wheaton married Sarah ~~Hall~~ in 1820.. feel that Sarah's parents were fromHolmes Co. but do not know their names...she had a brother Reuben Hall.. and her parents were from New Jersey... any clues in your records?

Will send self-addressed stamped envelope and would appreciate any help you can giveme....

Any Wheatons in Wayne or Holmes Co. are probably related to me..

Dear Mrs. Weaver,

I saw your John Smith married in Hardy Co. Va. 1810 and I'm hoping its the same John I'm looking for.

I'm sending a sheet with what I think are my Smith family but have never been able to prove any of it, so have been grasping at straws.

My grandfather was Arthur Smith, son of Thomas Smith, and he was the son of Greenbury Smith, married 1836 in Hardy Co. Va. to Margaret Hendrickson. I found him in 1850 census in Wirt Co., W. Va. and believe he died in the next two years. Saw in a book that his widow went to Ritchie Co., W. Va. in 1852. Found a Nimrod Smith in Lewis Co., W. Va. Listed on his death record as parents were John and Anis Smith. So started looking for them. Also thought that Cuthbert who stayed in Hardy Co. was a brother because he and Nimrod both married Thrashers. I saw a record where the estate of John Smith deceased be committed to the Sheriff of Hardy Co. in March 1852. In the 1850 census for Hardy Co. John was listed with Cuthbert Smith. He was 88 years old then.

I haven't found a will for John so can't find children for him.

If this is your John Smith and you can help me in any way I would surely appreciate it as I have been at a dead end. I don't have a wife for him except the name Anis and don't know if this is correct. Or if I have the right children.

I will be waiting to hear from you.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Betty L. Jones

Dear Mrs. Rulman,

I contacted the only granddaughter of John Smith and she gave me names but no dates. She doesn't think you are of this John Smith family.

As for those you think might be living in New Washington - I would suggest that you get a telephone directory and find a list of the Smiths around there.

Sorry I can't be of more help - but John Smith was my great uncle by marriage only. Sincerely

Dear Ms Weaver,

I'm responding to your listing of John Smith, m. 1810, Hardy, Va in the Sep/Oct Genealogical Helper Roots Cellar.

I realize this is a real long shot. Working on the Smiths can be so frustrating. My husbands 3rd great grandfather, Matthew A. Smith was born in Virginia in 1819. That is all I have been able to find out about him. His wife was born in Ohio and they moved to and died in Jay County, Indiana. I'm hoping you might know the names of the male children for your John Smith. So far I've found 5 separate Smith lines in my in laws family.

Best of luck in your search. To save time and stamps, I'll be happy to send you postage if you can respond with any information for me. If you have no information that can help we're not out any. Thankyou in advance.

Sincerely,

Laurie

Dear Lucy,

Just a small note with a great big THANKS! Remember when I corresponded with you last Oct. about the Smith family and you sent me the names of other Smith researchers? Well, Lucy, Barbara McFarland of Granville, OH was the right one! And you were the first person I had ever written to, who happened to be researching Smiths. I wonder what the odds were on that piece of luck? What amuses me is the fact that after having received the information from Barbara, now I am stuck with a John Smith.

I sincerely hope I will discover something one of these days which will help you.

Fondest Regards,
Brenda Finch

Nov. 1, 1980

Dear Lucy,

Thank you for your reply and information on the Smith family. It sure would be helpful if our Smith ancestors had given their children unusual first names. Then we could sort them out a lot easier.

I've been studying your chart and making comparisons. My Henry Smith left Hardy Co., VA early in 1835 and spent most of that year in Ohio (don't know what county). Then in the fall of 1835 they went on to Bloomington, IL where they lived until 1842 when they moved to DeWitt Co., IL. One of my sources says that these Smiths were of German ancestry. The source also implies that Smith relatives in Ohio went with my Smiths to Illinois.

I will keep in touch with any new info that I find. Best wishes to you and your family. And good luck on your research.

Sincerely,

Brenda

Dear Dr. Cummins,
Yesterday, during a trip to Columbus, I stopped at the Ohio Historical Center where I happened to glance through "Families of Crawford County Ohio". In it I noticed the index of SMITH names and discovered Elizabeth Ann Smith listed. I read your biography and found that this Elizabeth Ann Smith has to be a sister of my great great grandfather James Smith. Naturally I took the liberty to write to you to offer the little information that I have on the SMITH family and to see if you have more than that provided in the "History".

Our lineage:

JOHN SMITH m. REBECCA DAVIS
ELIZABETH ANN SMITH m. MORGAN CUMMINS
WILLIAM CUMMINS m. MATILDA HOSLER
ROYAL CLINTON CUMMINS m. PEARL RILDA RITTENOUR
KENNETH BURDETTE CUMMINS

JOHN SMITH m. REBECCA DAVIS
JAMES SMITH m. MAHALA TUCKER
AMANDA JANE SMITH m. ANSON WHEATO
ELMER WHEATON m. DAISY HEMLI
ERMA WHEATON m. HAROLD RULMAN
LUCY RULMAN m. GERALD WEAVER

According to our family Bible, JOHN SMITH married 12 November 1810 Hardy County, Va. REBECCA DAVIS. (John born abt. 1785, d. 1845). (Rebecca b. abt. 1788 Va., d. bf. 1860.) Their children were: James Smith, b. 2 Oct. 1811 Va.; Elizabeth Ann Smith b. 17 May 1813 Va.; John Smith, b. 11 Sept. 1815, Va.; Silas Smith, b. 6 Sept. 1817 Va.; William Smith b. 11 Oct. 1819 Va.; Mary Smith b. 6 Oct. 1821 Va.; Julia Ann Smith b. 12 Apr. 1824 Va.; Anthony Smith b. 24 Feb. 1831 Hardy Co., Va.

We know that John Smith came to Crawford County in 1833. His son James Smith came to Defiance County about 1851. Interestingly Elizabeth Ann Smith, dtr. of my James Smith married Peter HOSLER, son of Jonas Hosler (also your ancestors)..!!

I would like to know where the Smith-Eulis Cemetery is located in Chatfield Twp. My mother and I have visited New Washington twice and did discover the Lutheran Cemetery, but only found Anthony Smith"s tombstone.

Are there other descendants of the Smith family residing in your area? I would like to correspond with a few people to see if more data is available.

Hopefully you will find time to answer my letter. I can see by your biography that you are a very busy person, both at Kent State and in your local community.

I am a registered nurse with a B.S. and a Masters of Science and Education in Public Health, currently serving as Health Commissioner of the Defiance County General Health District. My husband and I have a daughter age 23 who is married. My parents are 75 years of age and also reside in Defiance.

Enclosed is a self-addressed envelope to make it easier for a response to my inquiries. I will look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Dear Probate Clerk:

I would like to obtain a copy of the will of Rebecca Smith, who died between 1850 and 1860 and John Smith, who died about 1845. Both were residents of Crawford County and presumably died there. Their residence was in Chatfield Township.

According to the "Index To Probate Records in Crawford County, Ohio ", Rebecca's Will No. is A2-518 F 81. There were several John Smiths listed and I can't be sure if any are the one who died in 1845. The Nos. for John Smith's Will are:

Not knowing if you charge per sheet copied or per document, will enclose a check for $4.00 since the usual vital statistics record fee is $2.00 per copy. Please advise if this amount is inadequate.

Thank you for your assistance in locating these records. My apologies for not being able to be more specific regarding John Smith.

Dear Mrs. Ratz,

Your name and address were sent to me by John L. Myers of the Tax Map Department of Crawford County. I had sent an inquiry to the County Engineer's office regarding the location of the Smith-Eulis Cemetery in Chatfield Township. They thought you might possibly give me the location or tell me who has the records to the cemetery. They could not find the record in the Crawford County Courthouse.

I am a descendant of the John and Rebecca Davis Smith family who lived in the area from 1833 on. One of the Smith daughters married Philip Eulis and according to a recent history of Crawford County, several family members are buried in the Smith-Eulis Cemetery.

My parents and I are planning a trip to that area sometime soon and I thought it would save much time if I obtained locations etc. before coming.

Thank you for any assistance you may give to me. I am enclosing a self-addressed stamped envelope for your convenience.

Dear Mr. Shumaker,

Your name and address were sent to me by Carolyn Ratz. She said that you are the chairman of the cemetery committee for the Crawford Co. Genealogical Society and have more records and knowledge of the county's cemeteries than anyone else.

I had written to Mrs. Ratz to inquire about the location of the Smith-Eulis Cemetery. She mentioned the Haynes-Smith-Mays Farm Cemetery as possibly being the cemetery that I wanted.

My ancestors were John and Rebecca Davis Smith who resided in Chatfield Twp. John died either in 1845 or 1848 and Rebecca about 1866. Their chn. were: James(who came to Def.Co.); Elizabeth who married Morgan Cummins; John; Silas; William; Mary Ann, who married Philip Eulis; Julia, who married Chris Hanes; and Anthony, who married Elizabeth Koehler.

Perhaps you can help me to locate the burial sites of the Smith family. In the last History of Crawford Co., Dr. Cummins mentioned the Smith-Eulis Cem. in Chatfield Twp. so that is why I had inquired about that particular one.

My father is the chairman of the cem. comm. for Def.Co. and I know the work and effort that goes into recording the information on the cemeteries.

I am enclosing a self-addressed stamped envelope and hope that you can assist me. My parents and I are planning a trip to the New Washington area very soon and would like to visit the cemetery where members of the Smith Family are buried.

Thank you.

Sincerely,
Lucy M Weaver

Directions to Smith-Eulis cemetery:
Location: Section 15, Township 1S, Range 17E. East edge of Broken Knife Creek, 225' south of State Rout 103, 1/2 Mile west of Swabb Road. Access from SR103 along fence and across creek.
I do not have this cemetery reading in any kind of shape for reference at this time.

Dear Mrs. Davis,

Your name was given to me by a friend after she visited the Moorefield, W.Va. Library. She noted that there was a book on the shelf about the William Davis Family and his brother Samuel Davis and was authored by you.

My great great great grandmother was Rebecca Davis, born in the 1780's in VA. She married 12 Nov. 1810 in Hardy Co. VA John Smith. They moved to Crawford Co.OH. in 1833 where John died about 1845 and Rebecca about 1866. I do not know the names of their parents. Their chn. were: James 1811; Elizabeth Ann 1813; John 1815; Silas 1817; William 1819; Mary Ann 1821; Julia Ann 1824; and Anthony.

I know Davis is probably a common name to research in your area, but I am wondering if there is any connection between my Rebecca and your Davises.

Enclosed is my self-addressed stamped envelope for your convenience. I would appreciate it very much if you will reply.

Dear Jeri,

Received your letter postmarked December 24, 1985 regarding the Family Group Sheet of John Smith.

In response to your question re: the possibility of Nancy Anna Smith b. ca 1790 possibly being the sibling of my John Smith, I can not be of any help to you. I have no information on the parents or siblings of John.

Postmarked 12-24

Certainly would like to be of help to you, but the SMITH family is a difficult one to tackle.

Will keep your letter on file in case I do find a connection or someone with Nancy in their line.

Thank you for writing.

Dear Ms Weaver,

I am an amateur genealogist searching for information about my great great grandfather, Joseph Kendrick Smith and his ancestors. His father was John Smith and his mother was Martha or Barbara Allen of Virginia.

I received your name from Lineage Links, Dayton, Ohio who advised that you were a Smith researcher.

I am hoping that you might shed some light on him or his ancestors. I am enclosing copy of his Family Group Sheet. Any information you can supply me will be greatly appreciated.

Enclosed is a self addressed stamped envelope for your reply.

Thank you for your cooperation and prompt attention.

Sincerely,

C Elliott Bouis

Andrew Davis Sr. was born prior to 1775, probably about 1766, making him about 20 years older than his first known child, Margaret Davis Brown. Andrew died between the date of his will, 3 March 1824 and the date the will was probated, 14 August 1829 (Book B, page 85, Champaign, County, Ohio).

Andrew was probably married twice. According to the History of Champaign County (1881 Beers & Co.) the name of his wife was Sarah. Sarah was probably the mother of all of Andrew's children. The only child that would be in question in Ruanna Davis who was born between the period of 1810 and 1815.

The name of Andrew's second wife was Mary according to the release on his estate, dated 14 August 1829. Mary was not named in the will. Mary was given a list of goods by the children on 12 August 1829. As Mary was not married to Andrew very many years, probably 9 to 15, he did not mention her in his will. He expected his children and her own to take care of her.

Mary was quite probably the widow of William Darnall who's estate is on file in Champaign County, Will Book A, page 36, 1814. William Darnall joined the Honey Creek Baptist Church of Jackson Township on 10 March 1812, Mary Darnall joined on 3 November 1812. However, "Mary Darnall Davis" was dismissed on 4 March 1820 from that church. There were two churches that were located closer to the home place of Andrew Davis-- Myrtle Tree Baptist, & Mt. Zion Baptist Church where she could have gone.

Andrew Davis held the deed to the northern half and the southwest quarter of Section in what is now Mad River Township. He was listed in the list of voters from Mad River Township on 8 October 1811. However, the family was surely in Champaign County prior to June 1809 when Margaret (Peggy) Davis was married.

The History of Champaign County (1881 Beers & Co.) relates that the family arrived in the county in 1806. It was stated that they came from New Jersey and that Andrew Davis was a veteran of the Revolutionary War.

Mary Darnall Davis died befor 30 July 1836, the date of her estate. John West, her son-in-law was the administrator. James Darnall, her son, was a witness.

There are questions regarding who was the father of WILLIAM DAVIS, i.e., Andrew Davis Sr. or Andrew Davis Jr.

The second wife of Andrew Jr. was Frances Sipe, the widow of Joseph Sipe. Joseph and Frances Sipe were the parents of Elizabeth, born in June 1811. After the death of her father, the guardianship of Elizabeth Sipe was awarded to Andrew Sr. This even though Elizabeth was living with her mother and stepfather Andrew Jr.

If in fact William Davis, born 14 November 1810, was the son of Andrew Jr., this would have him being raised with his stepsister Elizabeth Sipe, his future wife.

There is the possibility that William Davis was the son of Andrew Sr.

Andrew Sr. would have been approximately 44 years old when William Davis was born.

Andrew Jr. would have been between 21 and 31 years old when William Davis was born.

Dear Brad,

The envelope with Joseph Tucker and Daniel Tucker Estate Documents arrived several days ago..and then yesterday your original letter arrived. Thanks so much for sending the documents. I, too, am very happy to find another Tucker descendant and one that is actually related. The Joseph Tucker document definitely proves relationship since it lists Mandy Wheaton, my great grandmother Amanda; Betsy Ann Hosler, her sister; Julia Carrol, her sister; Catharine Haver, her sister; John Smith, her brother; and James Smith, her brother. Don't know why James was listed as living in Haydenville, OH., since as far as I know, he was always in Defiance County, OH. I noticed it didn't list Amanda's brother George Smith, either he was deceased, or they couldn't locate him. I never have been able to find anything on him. My mother never knew of him, so perhaps he died young.

I don't have a marriage document for John Tucker or for James Smith's parents. I copied the marriage date from a microfilm of Hardy Co. VA. marriage records at the Allen Co. Public Library, Ft. Wayne, IN. Never thought to look for Tuckers on that film, when I originally searched it several years ago.

With what you have sent me, I am inspired to make a trip to Fort Wayne and do some searching in Richland, Hocking, Athens Co. records for more information. Fort Wayne has one of the largest genealogical collections in the United States. Have you ever been there? I imagine you use the Newbury(Newberry?) Library in Chicago.

I see you have another marriage for Julia Ann Smith Carrol..Jackson? My mother visited a descendant of Julia in Rockford, Mercer Co, OH...she never mentioned a first marriage..just that Julia had married a Rev. Carrol. Where did you pick up this information?

Am enclosing Family Group Sheets for: Betsy Ann Smith Hosler, Catherine Smith Haver, Julia Ann Smith Carrol, James M. Smith, John Wesley Smith, and George Smith.

Another note I have from Athens Co. OH. marriage bonds on microfilm, 1805-1865, was that a George Tucker married Amanda J. Tucker..no date of marriage was given, but I found it interesting since my ancestor is named Amanda Jane and she had a son George!!

In looking over the census of Athens Co. in 1820, 1830 previously, I had made a note that Amanda's father could be H. John, Thomas, or David....Mahala named a son John and a daughter Elizabeth. None of the children were named Thomas or David.

Will look through my items and see if there is anything else to enclose.

Keep me posted..if you have any other questions..let me know..

Will try to dig up some new information at Fort Wayne.

My best regards!

Lucy Weaver

Dear Lucy!!

Thank you so much for the quick response to my letter! I certainly appreciated all the information you sent!! I am certainly appreciative that you have started digging into family research again!

I am enclosing my "summary records" of who I think are the siblings of Mahala, and their decendants. I have been trying to find them all through the census with mixed results.

I also am not sure who the parents of Mahala & siblings are, I think the father is one of the following; John H, John, Richard, Thomas or David Tucker. I am fairly certain it is not David because Elijah Tucker is definitely his son and none of Elijah´s children are listed with the estate of Joseph Tucker. I think John is also not the one as he married in Athens Co in 1819 and according to the 1850 & 1860 census was born in 1791 which makes him too young. I think I have most of the children of Thomas and I don´t think he is the one, however, all the Tucker females that married Tucker males are probably his daughters (Elizabeth m/ Levi, Polly m/ Joseph, Sarah m/ Daniel, or Sarah m/ Elijah). That leaves Richard & John H, both of whom may have moved to Auburn twp Richland Co OH for the 1830 census after being in Athens Co in 1820. I haven´t done any research there yet. At this point in time I am leaning toward John H Tucker and his wife Elizabeth as they lived next to and sold land to Tripolet Bobo who is the father of William Tucker´s wife Thizza/Thurza and Elijah Tucker´s wife, Mahala Bobo. John H died in Hocking Co, unfortunately his estate file has only receipts and inventories in it. NO OTHER papers of any kind!

Do you have a copy of the marriage document for John Tucker or for James Smith ´s parents from Hardy Co VA? I would appreciate a copy! I think that the Tucker´s came from Hardy Co and previously to that had come from Maryland. A first cousin of mine has done quite a bit of work on the Tuckers, but, has come up with the same conclusions as in the previous paragraph. She has done more on them in VA and MD, but, has not really gotten anywhere there yet.

I will enclose a copy of the page I copied from Joseph Tucker´s estate. I should have copied the whole thing, but, took notes instead. It is full of all sorts of relatives names, but the most important page is the one I copied. I will also enclose a page copied from Daniel Tucker´s estate, he was executor of Joseph, but, also passed away.

I noticed that Crawford Co and Richland Co are right next to each other! Another interesting tidbit!

Could you also please send family group sheets for the other children of Mahala & James Smith? I had done some census digging for them also!

Thank you again for the family group sheets and the letter! If there is anything else you want on the Tucker family let me know. You don´t know how pleased I am to find a descendant of Mahala & James so that the nephews and nieces of Joseph Tucker now can be connected together, at least the brothers and sisters! Hopefully the parents will be able to be proven soon!

Best Always!

Brad

Dear Mrs Weaver!

I was recently going through the ancestral charts from the Ohio Genealogical Society and saw the one you submitted! I believe that me have TUCKER ancestors in common! I will enclose my ancestral chart.

I really haven't been able to prove who the parents are of Mahala TUCKER and her siblings, including my ancestor William TUCKER. I do know they are bothers & sister because of the estate of Joseph Tucker which lists quite a few nieces and nephews!

Please write soon! I would like to exchange information on the TUCKER family in Athens Co OH and before! Thank you!

Sincerely,

Brad

Dear Lucy Weaver,

I received your letter from Phyllis Crick regarding my Clapp/Tucker ancestry. It seems we have the same lines.

My earliest known Clapp ancester was Jost (Joseph) from Germany who came over on the ship "James Goodwill" 1727. I know very little about him. I visited my ancestor's monuments in Palestine Cemetery this past summer. Ludwig and Elizabeth Clapp and numerous Wilcox'and Kester'.

Jacob and Louisa Clapp were my great-grandparents. My grandparents were Jeanette (Nettie) Victoria Clapp and Philo Andrew Tucker. My parents were Frank Arthur Tucker and Louise Carolyn Thomas(dau of August Thomas (Thoms) of Germany and Anna Margaret Ritter also of Germany).

I am Anna Mae Tucker m Alexander McCrorie Crawford b Killwinning, Scotland.

My earliest known Tucker possibly from Mass was Robert. His descendents were:

Benjamin
Benjamin b 8 Mar 1670 wife Elizabeth
Benjamin Tucker Jr. b 5 Mar 1703 wife Mary Warren
Honorable Joshua Tucker b 3 July 1738 Marlboro, N.H.wife Elizabeth Davis b 1747 Roxbury,MA.,D 1840 Cherry Valley NY
Joseph Tucker b about 1789 Stafford, Tolland Co,CT wife Polly Cross b 1787 Stafford d 1866 (dau of Juddua Cross, CT g daughter of Ebenezer Cross and Miss Lindsay)
Ebenezer Tucker wife Lois Patchin of North Gage Oneida Co NY (dau of Nathan Patchin,Esq)
Philo Andrew Tucker
Frank Arthur Tucker
Anna Mae Tucker (Crawford)

I would like to exchange information with you. Have some documents and pictures if interested. I would appreciate any information you may have.

Best Wishes

Ann

Dear Ann,
What a surprise to find a letter from Keego Harbor, when I returned home from caring for our daughter (following surgery), who lives in West Bloomfield, MI. In fact, I ran some errands in the Keego Harbor area for her. Anyway, I am a little late in answering all of the mail that accumulated while I was away.

I can't help you much on the TUCKER line. Will enclose a family group sheet for my great-great grandmother Mahala TUCKER, who evidently originated from the TUCKERS in Athens Co., OH. She was named as an heir in a TUCKER will from that vicinity.

Bradley Behrens, 816 S. Maple, Apt. 16, Oak Park, IL, 60304 has provided the most information on that particular line. You may wish to write to him.

I will keep your name on my list for Tucker data and if I find a connection with your line, will drop you a line.

Our daughter is Mrs. Scott Shevin(Ann,also), who lives at 1773 Poppleton Dr., off Greer Rd., off Hiller Rd.(Wellington Woods Sub). She is not into genealogy at this point in time, though.

Thanks for writing..my apologies again for the slow response.

Best Wishes for the holiday season!!!

Dear Lucy:

I read your ad in the Bureau of Missing Ancestors section of the "Genealogical Helper" magazine in which you stated you were researching John Smith of Harrison County, West Virginia. I don't know if what information I have is of any use to you, but I am enclosing a Family Group Sheet on a Smith Family of Harrison Co. My grandfather was Archie Seaton Smith and he had a brother named John Smith.

If this is your John

Smith, or if you have any other information that might tie to my line, I would appreciate hearing from you.

Good luck on your search.

Regards,

Mary Ashcraft

Dear Mary,

Received your letter today regarding John Smith. My John goes back to 1781. Will enclose a Family Group Sheet for him. Evidently Harrison and Hardy Co. VA. were full of the Smiths. It is extremely frustrating to research the name John Smith.

Will keep your letter on file for future reference.

Thank you for responding to my ad in the " Genealogical Helper".

Hello Lucy!

That is why I don't believe that Margaret Berry is the first wife of Joseph Tucker, but, I entered it as so many think it is so and with the additional data it really shows how wrong it is!

Actually, I use the LDS PAF program....not Family Tree Maker. It is so reasonably priced. I know others can do things like import photos and such, but, you can't beat the price!

Have you added more info the to the descendants of Mahala since we last communicated? Would appreciate an update!

Lucy,

Without checking my records I think you are right. John Tucker was the son of Joseph Tucker and Lucy Orme. John had a half brother John H. Tucker. It gets confusing. I descend from John Sister Ruth Tucker who married Bennett Bean. They lived in Hardy Co., W.Va. Their son John Bean came to Athens Co., Ohio. I know other siblings of John were Aaron Tucker, Nathan Tucker, Susan Tucker married a Bean, David Tucker who married Susan Austin, Erasmus Tucker married Eleanor Bean and a Marshall. I think there are more siblings but off the top of my head I can't think of them. Tommorrow I will see what I can find out. Most of the family ended up in Athens Co., Ohio.

Lucy,

It gets confusing. There are Tucker Cousins marring Tucker Cousins. The census is the 1776 Census of Maryland. The census for Montgomery Co., is a little confusing. Wifes and daughters are listed separate from husbands and sons.

Our Joseph Tucker is the last Mail adult Tucker listed in the Male line. He has with him John Tucker age 4 Joseph Tucker is 25. The corresponding woman for him is Elizabeth Tucker age 28 and a daughter Susan 2.

Other Tucker families in the area are Edward Tucker 56, wife Elizabeth Tucker 56. Children Alexander age 21 and Eleanor 14.

Next Tucker family Walter Tucker age 34 and wife Susanna 28. Children: William 10, Rezin 8, Osborn 6, Walter 4, Nathanial 2, Benjamin Tucker 1

The other children were gleaned from a letter written by Dr. Thomas Tucker grandson of Josephus Tucker son of Erasmus Tucker and research done by Josephine Bean Wilson around the turn of the Century.

In the estate of Aaron Tucker in the 1820's Hardy Co., Va, now WVA, it states that he had 1/10 interest in the estate of his father. Knowning that Elizabeth died early and had no heirs, that leaves the other 10 children I mentioned earlier.

Lucy,

Joseph Tucker was married twice. First to Margaret Elizabeth Berry. She died before 1788 Montgomery Co., Md. They had two children John H. tucker and Susannah Tucker. John H. Tucker married Elizabeth ? There is an early census for Montgomery County Md. and they are listed with Jospeh. About 1780 Joseph married Lucy Orme. Her maiden name has not been proven. They had the following children: David, Aaron, Erasmus, Thomas, John, Nathan, Elizabeth, Nancy Ann, and Ruth. Nathan may have gone to Mo. Elizabeth died in Hardy Co., Ruth married Bennett Bean and lived in Inkerman, Hardy Co., W.Va.

Your ~~John H.~~ Tucker was born ca 1772 and died abt 1846 in Athens Co., Ohio.

the children I have for John H. Tucker are as follows, Levi, William, Mahala, and Joseph.

18807 According to my Records Daniel and Walter Tucker were the sons of Thomas and Nancy Marshall Tucker. 18808

Children of Thomas Tucker and Nancy Marshall
1. Sarah Ann Tucker married Elijah Tucker 18817
2. Josiah Tucker married Elleanor Waters 7686
3 William Tucker married Harriet Tucker 18819
4 Elizabeth Tucker married Levi tucker ✓
5 Lucy Ellen Tucker married Thomas Russell 18820-18821
6 Amelia tucker married Thomas Potter 18822
7 Polly Tucker married Joseph Tucker ✓
8 Daniel Tucker married Sarah Ann Tucker 7692
9 Walter Tucker

Hi, Lucy

I was pleased to hear you received the descendancy chart. I corrected the spelling of the Yaney surname but have done little else recently. I had cataract surgery and lens implant, right eye on October 12 and the left on 30 November. I am elated with results so far, nearly 20/20 vision now. The weather here has been good although we are now starting our rainy season which runs generally from September through March with no rain during the summer months. Naomi and I spent our thanksgiving alone this year with a 15 pound turkey we had in our freezer. I am sure there is enough left over for Christmas too.

My monitor died the other day,I purchased a Hewlett Packard 15" to replace it. I am fortunate to have a son-in-law who does computer field service work. He assembled a desktop for me with an AMD K6 processor running 200 mhz. It has a 3 1/2 floppy, CD Rom, Iomega Zip, and a 3 GB hard drive. I have an Epson Stylus Color 800 printer. I started with a Dell computer some time ago for amateur radio digital communications. I usually have my PACTOR communications program running on the side while working on my Genealogy program (or playing hearts etc). Naomi has the old Dell computer in the sewing room and enjoys e-mail with the kids.

Good Morning Lucy,
The Cummins data is on its way. I would appreciate the Smith information very much. I am going to enter John and Rebecca in my files this morning. You will note in the Cummins data that my wife's biological father was a Davis. I told Naomi there is a long shot we may have more than a marriage relationship.Ha. Incidentally, as you will note by the records, I am 73 years young. Naomi and I have been married for 53 years and have lived in California since 1960. I spent my school years, 3rd grade and up, in Toledo but I have some fond memories of Holgate and Henry County. The Weaver name seems very familiar.
What software are you using for your Family history? I am using the LDS Personal Ancestral File program 3.0. Well Lucy, I appreciate our contact and chance to exchange information.

Is the Clarence Cummins, dec.that you refer to the Mr. Cummins that lived here on Ralston Ave. in Defiance and has a son and a dtr.Clarence & Martha? I never knew that he had any data on the family. I must have a mixup in my data, because I haveJohn Cummins married to Florence Meek, not Caorline Bordner. Perhaps you can straighten me out on this. You must be the son of Carl. I have you in my computer and that in 1985 you lived in Goleta, CA. You must be a cousin to Joan Cummins Paxton here in Defiance. I mentioned to her once that we were related, but am not sure she was too interested in the family history. I think we can compare notes. I own the original Smith Family Bible, which has the names of the children of John and Rebecca Smith and their children. Let me know what you need and I'll gladly e-mail it to you. Also would like some of your data. So glad to find another Smith descendant who is interested in preserving the Family History. We are so lucky to have a John Smith from Virginia to research(grin). My records show Morgan and Elizabeth's children were ABNER, JOHN and WILLIAM. JOHN, my great great grand father married CAROLINE BORDNER. WILLIAM married MATILDA HOSLER. JOHN and CAROLINE moved to Henry County. My records of John's descendants are quit complete. I am searching for information regarding Morgan's ancestors. I have only his fathers name DAVID and a note indicating David, Morgan and Elizabeth moved to Crawford County from Virginia. I am new at this genealogy thing but find it very interesting.

Dear Marcus,

Enclosed is the descendant text of the DESCENDANTS OF JOHN SMITH. Discovered much to my dismay that it didn't print out the spouse's name when I didn't have the date of marriage. Should have printed a journal report, but that takes forever to sort out from my 25,000 name file. Anyway this should give you an idea of the descendants living in this area.

Hope you can make sense of the numbering system.

Hopefully someday, I'll find the parents of John Smith. I don't think it will be easy. Luck us to have a John Smith born in Virginia!

If you have any questions, I'll try to find the answer for you.

Subject: Re:Your Crawford Co Query of 10 Mar, 1998

My name is Marcus Cummins, great great great grand son of Morgan and Elizabeth Cummins according to information compiled by my uncle Clarence Cummins,deceased. My records show Morgan and Elizabeth's children were ABNER, JOHN and WILLIAM. JOHN, my great great grand father married CAROLINE BORDNER. WILLIAM married MATILDA HOSLER. JOHN and CAROLINE moved to Henry County. My records of John's descendants are quit complete. I am searching for information regarding Morgan's ancestors. I have only his fathers name DAVID and a note indicating David, Morgan and Elizabeth moved to Crawford County from Virginia. I am new at this genealogy thing but find it very interesting.
Incidentally, my records shows Morgan died 16 June 1906 and was buried in Lake View Cemetery, Hillsdale Michigan. Elizabeth died 17 July 1881 and was buried in the family cemetery, Crawford County.

Dear Lucy,

I have finished entering your Smith family data into my files. You will find enclosed a John Smith Descendancy Chart extract for your review. I have yet the task of entering source data and appropriate notes. After all names were entered I validated my file "Names" list against the data you provided correcting any errors noted. I think it turned out quite well.

I found your numbering system very easy to follow reminiscent of military specifications I have had to work with. Of all those names in your extract there was no one I would have known personally. However, it was interesting to see the surname Haver. I had a very close friend, Harold Haver and his brother Jack in Toledo while growing up. I remarked recently to Naomi that since Harold, his wife Grace and his brother have all passed away and neither family had any boys it was the end of the Haver line. There is a daughter Debbie in the Toledo area yet.

Enough rambling on. I will get this in the mail tomorrow morning.

Sincerely,

Marcus

Marcus

TO ALL;

G.S.R.C. - Genealogical Storage and Research Center (25,000+ Records ONLINE!)

THIS IS A PUBLIC (NO CHARGE) RESOURCE!! At least until the traffic gets so heavy that I have to spend lots of $$$ to keep it up and running. Then I'll be looking for sponsers.

I have just inserted some 7,500 1851 Census and 3,400 1839 Pigot's records for CORNWALL into the database. If you are on the Cornwall "L" please send this to them as a research source. I am on too many "L's" now to subscribe to another.

I've changed the search web page to eliminate the redundant search options.

I've also added a list extractor for the record SOURCES and the PLACES (Town, Parishes & Counties) recorded in the database. The SOURCES will have to be cleaned up for clarification and I know the PLACES (404 items) need some work too. If you have a listing need, send me the request. I may be able to provide it right away.

If you have additions to make or any corrections to report pop me an Email with the record number(s) and the change(s) required.

For the computer "newbies": The contents of these web pages can be cut and pasted (or saved) to your computer. It may not be a good idea though as the database is growing everyday making yesterday's listing outdated.

If you get an error message from my server, the database is likely being updated, so try again after a bit. The files are "locked" during update processing producing the error.

Hello Lucy,
Glad to hear from you. My husband's father passed away this afternoon and we will be out of pocket for a few days. I suggest that you look at the book, "The House of Fowler" in the state archives. What state are you from? I will look through the records I have as soon as I can. Alexander Fowler that married Magaline Smith was the brother of my ancestor, Sherwood Fowler. Their father was Alexander Fowler who married Sarah Bugg. She was from a very prominent family. I will get back to you. I would really like to know what you might know.

My 2nd great grandmother is Rosa Tucker b. 1872, d. 1919
Her parents are William Tucker b. 4/17/1848, d. 10/31/1924 married Elizabeth Mender b. 1/17/1851, d. 6/1/1923
William's parents are John Tucker married Mary.

Sorry nothing to offer on Mahala Tucker Smith, but we copied stuff on Tuckers, not researching Smiths in Athens County.

Dear Ms. Weaver:

I'm responding to your query in the August 1999 Athens County Bulletin. I have an ancestor, Daniel Tucker, b. 23 Feb 1830, in Ohio; d. 3 Feb 1896, in Athens County, Ohio. I am interested in discovering if he is the same Daniel Tucker who is brother to your ancestor Mahala.

On Daniel Tucker's death certificate, in the space reserved for "father", someone wrote "Thos. Tu" and then scratched it out. I've been operating under the theory that someone at least speculated that Daniel's father was named Thomas, and then perhaps scratched it out because he wasn't sure. If, however, my ancestor Daniel is the same as your collateral ancestor, then his father is John H., which opens up an entirely different line of research.

For purposes of identification, my ancestor Daniel served in the Civil War from 1861-63, Ohio Volunteer Infantry, 53 Regiment, Company B. In Daniel's pension papers is an affidavit from a grandson, Charles E. Tucker, age 14. Daniel was married to Sarah A. Tucker who must have had more than one middle name, because she sometimes refers to herself, as in Daniel's pension papers, as Sarah E. Tucker. Tucker was her maiden name, so she must have married into another Tucker branch. Sarah's parents were Eligah and Sarah Ann Tucker, and I believe Sarah Ann was also born a Tucker. As you can see, untangling these Tucker strands can be very confusing.

I should have written to you long ago, but something always got in the way. My husband and I are leaving for Athens for the First Families banquet on this Thursday, September 16. Are you perhaps going? If so, perhaps I will see you there. If not, could you possibly get an answer to me before then.

Looking forward to hearing from you,

Dear Ms. Weaver:

I'm responding to your query in the August 1999 Athens County Bulletin. I have an ancestor, Daniel Tucker, b. 22 Feb 1830, in Ohio; d. 3 Feb 1895, in Athens County, Ohio. I am interested in discovering if he is the same Daniel Tucker who is brother to your ancestor Mahala.

On Daniel Tucker's death certificate, in the space reserved for "father", someone wrote "Thos. Tu" and then scratched it out. I've been operating under the theory that someone at least speculated that Daniel's father was named Thomas, and then perhaps scratched it out because he wasn't sure. If, however, my ancestor Daniel is the same as your collateral ancestor, then his father is John H., which opens up an entirely different line of research.

For purposes of identification, my ancestor Daniel served in the Civil War from 1861-65, Ohio Volunteer Infantry, 53 Regiment, Company B. In Daniel's pension papers is an affidavit from a grandson, Charles E. Tucker, age 14. Daniel was married to Sarah A. Tucker who must have had more than one middle name, because she sometimes refers to herself, as in Daniel's pension papers, as Sarah E. Tucker. Tucker was her maiden name, so she must have married into another Tucker branch. Sarah's parents were Elijah and Sarah Ann Tucker, and I believe Sarah Ann was also born a Tucker. As you can see, untangling these Tucker strands can be very confusing.

Lucy,

I am not sure that are Tuckers are related as my William Tucker was born in England in 1847. However, I have found the following from a recent research trip.

>From "Athens County Families" page 206 Tucker- Harris Families
Lorenzo Dow Tucker and Emma Delana Harris were married in Forest Co. Wisconsin in 1901. They raised thirteen children.

Lorenzo, born in Athens Co., Ohio in 1879, was one of five children born to George W. Tucker and Margaret Hammond. Margaret, born in Ohio in 1842, was the daughter of Steven Hammond and Mary Davis. Steven, born 1809 in Conn., and Mary, born 1809 in Ohio, were married in 1830 in Perry Co. They were the parents of eight children.

George Tucker, born 1839 in Athens Co., son of William Tucker and Thurza Bobo, was one of nine children. He married Margaret Hammond in Hocking Co. in 1865. He moved his family to Vernon Co., WI about 1885, along with the Martin Bobo family (brother of Thurza) and Isaiah Hammond family (brother of Margaret). William Tucker, born 1813 in Av., and Thurza Bobo, also born 1813 in Va., were married in Athens Co. in 1834.

The article continues with Emma Harris' family.

Per "Index to Athens County Death Records 1867-1908"

Name	Date of Death	Vol	Page
Tucker, John	7/20/1878	1	110
Tucker, Daniel	2/3/1896	2	162

Tucker, Mahala	8/13/1884	1	174
Tucker, Joseph	12/6/1891	1	286

Per Birth Records from Athens County (actual records)
Tucker, Lorenzo Don born 10/30/1879 Nelsonville, Athens Co., Ohio
Mother - Margaret Hammon Father - George Tucker parents resided in Nelsonville.

Hope some of this is helpful.

Subject: Smith in Ohio

I may have written to you before, noted that you were mentioned in many Smith & Ohio websites.
Anyway, my Smith's are:
James (Middle name is perhaps F, perhaps Franklin) Smith was born 1-8-1846 in Crawford County Ohio.
He marred Sarah Jane Murfin (born 9/22/1841) on Dec, 27, 1863 in Defiance County, OH.
He served in the Civil War enlisting in Lucas County, OH, August 25, 1864.
He was in the 182nd Infantry. I have his pension applications listing his children.
Also they were included in the 1880 census in Carryall Township, Paulding County, Ohio.
The children and birthdates were:
Eliza Florence Smith 9/28/1864
Ida Matilda Smith 1/11/1869
Sarah Jane Smith born and died in 1872
James William Franklin Smith 12/24/1879
Albert Augustus Smith 2/21/1876
Lillie May Smith 5/22/1878
Charley Clide 1/28/1880 Note, on census he is listed as Schaslen with a ? questions mark after the name.
They moved to Allegan County, 3 miles east of Pullman, Cheshire area sometime after Charley was born.
The Michigan Death index shows another daughter, Hannah born 11/25/1878, died 12/12/1878.
I suspect they had relatives in Michigan that they may have visited in 1878 and had Hannah prematurely.
Their son, James W. F. Smith married Clara Flanegan. (my Paternal Grandparents)
Would like to go back further than James Smith and Sarah Jane Murfin but am getting nowhere.

Subject: Re: Tucker

Hi Lucy,

I think the thing that is really confusing about these Tuckers is that Tuckers married Tuckers.

Here's what I have on Daniel Tucker & Sarah Tucker:
Daniel b 1830 d. 2 Feb 1896. Burial in Canaanville Ctry, Athens Co., OH

1860 Census for Athens Co., OH
Daniel Tucker - age 31
Sarah - age 28
Zachariah - age 9
Eliz - age 7
Martha E. - age 5
Walter A. - age 1

1870 Census for Athens Co
Daniel - age 40 - works on farm
Sarah - age 38 - keeping house
Zachariah - age 10 - farm laborer
Eliza Jane - age 17 - attending school
Martha E. - age 15 - attending school
Mary - age 9
Nelson O. - age 3

1880 census:
Daniel - age 50 - farmer
Sarah E. - age 47 - keeping house
Mary A. - age 18 - at house
William W. age 13 - at house.

Although originally buried in the "Tucker Cemetery" in Canaan Twp, Athens Co., OH, the graves for Daniel, his wife Sarah E. and Francis marion Tippie have been moved to the Canaanville Cemetery, Canaan Twp., Athens Co, OH. The inscription on the tombstone for Daniel and Sarah E. reads "Asleep with Jesus." Apparently the graves were moved when the dam was built to form Dow Lake.

According to his tombstone, Daniel Tucker served in Co. B. 53 REG OVI.

The info above was obtained from OU Library, Genealogy section. It was placed there by Elaine Carol Mowery. She also states: A Ms. Dawn Love Rubinen wrote to Alma Sparkman on March 1, 990 that she had a copy of a Civil War discharge orders for a Daniel Tucker. The orders state:

"Daniel Tucker - Private - 53 Reb. OVI. Enrolled 15 day Oct 1861 to serve 3 years. Discharged 16 day of March 1863 in Moscow, Tenn by reason of heart disease contracted in service. The said Daniel Tucker was born in Athens Ohio 31 year of age, 5 ft. 9 1/2 inches tall, dark complextion, blue eyes. A farmer when enrolled."

An affidavit sworn by George F. Smith and A. W. Durfee in support of Daniel's pension claim states:
"That they were privates in the same company and regiment with Daniel Tucker and that on or about Sept. 30, 1862 said Tucker, without fault or improper conduct of his, from exposure to wet and stormy weather while on detail, parparing timber to build a block house, contracted a very severe cold, which continued to grow worse until he was sent to hospital. He afterwards returned to the regiment but was ot able to do full duty Up to the time he contracted this cold, said Tucker was a very strong hearty man. They make this statement from personal knowledge as stated above. Said disease was contracted while in the military service and in the line of his duty."

If you need their children, let me know.

to Alma Grennan on March 1, 1990 that she had a copy of a Civil War discharge orders for a Daniel Tucker. The orders state,

"Daniel Tucker - Private - 63 Reg. OVI. Enrolled 15 day Oct 1861 to serve 3 years. Discharged 16 day of March 1863 in Moscow, Tenn by reason of heart disease contracted in service. The said Daniel Tucker was born in Athens Ohio 27 year of age, 5 ft. 9 1/2 inches tall, dark complexion, blue eyes. A farmer when enrolled."

An affidavit sworn by George F. Smith and A. W. Durfee in support of Daniel's pension claim states
"That they were privates in the same company and regiment with Daniel Tucker and that on or about Sept. 30, 1862 said Tucker, without fault or improper conduct of his, from exposure to wet and stormy weather while on detail preparing timber to build a block house, contracted a very severe cold, which continued to grow worse until he was sent to hospital. He afterwards returned to the regiment but was ot able to do full duty. Up to the time he contracted the cold, said Tucker was a very strong hearty man. They make this statement from personal knowledge as stated above. Said disease was contracted while in the military service and in the line of his duty."

If you need their children, let me know

Hi, I just started researching the Tuckers. I show John Tucker m. Druscilla Walker. She was born circa 1768 in Maryland. She died after 1850. The info I have shows one son listed who is Elija (Eligah). Eligah's second wife was Mahala Bobo who died before 1856.

Sarahann E. Tucker b 2/17/1833 d. 5/8/1898. Sarah A. Tucker applied for a widow's pension in Athens Co., OH on 21 March 1896. She stated that she was a resident of Marchmont, OH and the widow of Daniel Tucker who served a Private in Company B, 53rd Regiment of Ohio Volunteers in the war of 1861-1865. He was enrolled on or about 6 November 1861 and was honorably discharged on the 23rd day of march 1863. She further stated that her maiden name was Sarah A. Tucker, that she married Daniel on or about 4 July 1850 in Athens Co., OH, that Daniel died on or about 3 February 1896.

I have more if you need it.

Hello Lucy!

Glad to see your query in the ACHS&M Bulletin. Keep me in mind if you get any interesting responses. I agree that Levi, Mahala, William and Joseph are children of H John/John H & Elizabeth. I don't think that Josiah, Daniel or Walter are. Josiah is a son of Thomas, Daniel and Walter are sons of David. I am also not sure if our John H is the one that died in Athens Co @1846. There is A John H Tucker who did, but, haven't found anything to link him to our bunch. I think we need to investigate the John Tucker in Richland Co some more first and eliminate him. I think it is more likely that he is, but, very curious that he is so elusive between 1820 census and 1840's being appointed postmaster of Nelsonville, and estate & cemtetery record.

In the 1820 census there are some older daughters of H John (that is how it is written in that census) and I suspect that they are (from Athens Co OH marriage records) Amelia m/ Wm Kennedy 1823, Aurilla m/ Wm Canada 1823, Eliza m/ Reuben Tuttle 1829. I wonder if the Amelia/Aurilla is a duplicate entry... names are so close, dates are so close, husbands names are so close... Think Eliza Tuttle moved to Illinois.

Did find an 1816 land record in Hampshire Co VA where John & Elizabeth Tucker of Athens Co OH, sold undivided shares of land, of Joseph Tucker, dec'd to Nathan Tucker of Hampshire Co. Nathan is the executor of his father's estate and John is also an heir... therefore son of Joseph. Other land transactions also help confirm that Thomas and David are also Joseph's sons, as well as John that married Damaris Cone, also in Athens Co! I really think that the two John's are half brothers and that H John is perhaps Henry John, as it is thought that Joseph's father is Henry. Why he didn't go as Henry to help differentiate him from his half brother is a mystery... and who ever said that everything our ancestors did was logical and made sense! HA!

Best to you!

Brad

Dear Lucy,

My name is Jana Last and I have ancestors from Athens Co. Ohio. I own two published family histories about these ancestors. One of the books is called "The History and Genealogy of the Gov. John Webster Family of Connecticut" and the other is called "Descendants of Robert Waterman." I looked in the index of these books and found several Smiths and Tuckers in each index. If you would like to send me specific names of Smiths and Tuckers, I could look them up for you and see if they are who you are looking for.

Good Luck!

regarding James Smith.
I would like to keep in touch to compare stories.
My Great Grandfather, James Smith, born 1846 in Crawford County Ohio.
He married Sarah Jane Murphy Dec 27, 1863. They were listed in the 1880 census for Paulding County Ohio along with their cildren Albert A. 4, Elizabeth Florence 15, Ida Matilda 11, James W. F. 8, Lilly May 2 and Charles 4mo.
James and Sarah moved to Allegan County sometime after that and had another daughter named Hannah.
James was in the civil war in 1865, 182nd infantry. I have pension applications.
I can't go back any further because I don't know the parents of James or Sarah.
Does anything link with your information?

James SMITH was married to Mahala TUCKER on 14 March 1839 in Athens Co., OH., according to my notes. They had a child born June 1837 & one born Feb.
1838, so I am wondering if I copied the marriage date incorrectly or if they had two chn. before marriage. The Family Bible lists the birthdates of all the Smith children, but not the marriage date of James & Mahala. I copied the marriage date from a microfilm at the Allen Co., IN. Library several yrs. ago & may have copied it incorrectly. If someone has the book of marriage records for Athens Co. for the 1830s, could they please do a quick look-up for me? I really would appreciate it.

I would also like to know who his father was. In the book, "Phillips' "Great Index of Biographical Reference" it says: "A Fowler of England, who was a silk weaver and merchant, won the affections and hand in marriage of a daughter of the Noble Douglas family of Stirling Castle, Scotland. She had a son and died. It is believed this child that came to America at 19 years old was Lieutenant Alexander Fowler of the "King's Foot" of the colony of Virginia during the French and the Indian Wars. He had many half brothers and sisters some of whom may have followed him to the new country." I have read where Alexander Fowler, Jr. lived in Goochland Co., VA on the homeplace. I assume he died and was buried there. I do not know where the homeplace is in Goochland Co., VA. I have been to Goochland Co but didn't find out anything new. What do you know about a judgement against Alexander Sr. by Thomas Pleasants in Goochland Co., Virginia?

Hi,
In Deed Book 17(1842-1843)is the following division of Aaron Tucker's la a selling of their shares in the estate(land) of William Tucker,Joseph Tucke Tucker, Martha Fulton,Ellender Rupell,Mahala Smith,Harriet Tucker, and Elizabeth Tucker. This was 8 of 9 shares. The land was purchased by Asa Tucker,so he is probably the one that held the 9th share and bought out his shares. Those who signed the document releasing their claim on the land w William Tucker,Elizabeth Tucker, Samuel Fulton,Harriet Tucker,Joseph Tucker,Elijah Tucker,James Smith,Mahala Smith,Thomas Rupell,Ellender Rupell,Martha Fulton. There is another William Tucker listed and it appear have 2D written by it,so this could have been a William Jr.??. This docume witnessed by William Burch and George Bean. This document was dated 3 June,1841. Attached are two other affidavits sworn to by George Bean and by J.Hoskinson? J.P. Also attached is where Asa Tucker sold land to John Also on 18 January,1842 where Asa and Elizabeth Tucker sold land to Lev Tucker(who is described as being of Canan Twp.Athens Co.Ohio). This de witnessed by George Bean and G.W.Reade?

I hope that this information will be of some use to someone. I found no ref to a son of Aaron named Aaron as I read in an earlier posting. Joan

Martha and Samuel Fulton were married in Athens Co. Ohio. Documents s was from Hardy Co. Va. born in 1809. She came here with her young son supposedly a widow. Some family tales have it that Aaron's father was Aar Tucker also. Dawn Love Ruhehan has much info on Tuckers and comes in Camby and the Tucker sides. Also found old document "supervisors bond"
Aaron Tucker was elected as supervisor of road district No. 5. in Canaan Township.

Hi Lucy! I can't take credit for finding the deed, someone else did that, but it did feel good to put all those documents together and have it work out. One of the best things to me is that it solved a very inappropriate relationship among the Ohio Tuckers, where an Uncle married an niece.... I just knew that was wrong, wrong, wrong, but, couldn't figure it any other way, til now, now its cousins (again) getting hitched.

So the children of Aaron & Elizabeth Tucker are: Martha m/ Samuel Fulton, Levi m/ Elizabeth Tucker, Sarah Ann m/ Elijah Tucker, Lucy Ellen/Ellendil m/ Thomas Russell, Mahala m/ James Smith, William m/Thurza Bobo, Joseph m/ Mary/Polly Tucker, Harriet m/ William Tucker and Elizabeth m/ Asa Tucker... so there are 5 marriages between cousins here! unbelieveable!

and Aaron is definitely a son of Joseph Tucker... I'm just not sure which wife as he married twice.

So good to hear from you! It isn't rainy here now,but, might snow tomorrow!

Subject: Some Answers on the Tuckers

Hello Lucy!

Some answers to your questions... I hope....

18805
1. Don't know Aaron's wife's maiden name...
2. Levis wife, Elizabeth perhaps a dau of Thomas
3. Sarah d 1833
4. William, husb of Harriett, s/o Thomas

21941 5. Asa s/o Erasmus (18806

6. Mahala was born about 1812/13 wasn't she?
7. William is my ancestor, who married Thurza Bobo
8. Aaron born about 1775-1790.... I think he was one of the older kids, so probably closer to 1775.

Hey, I can't imagine being confused on these Tucker families.... they are quite a puzzle! So much more falls into place now with Aaron'ts kids deed. Now if I could just find where Thomas went to... supposedly Illinois with son William, but, it looks like Harriet died in Ohio... unless she came back after father & husband died? Haven't been able to figure it out. Thought I had a clue... thought I found his youngest son Leander in Kansas, but, would you believe that I had found another Leander, born within two years of Thomas' also in Ohio, to a father named Thomas, both families moved west... the similarities were very striking, but, then got info that proved it was a different Thomas. Rats! Back to the drawing board! Then there is David's kids, which I feel better about, as some appear in the census with his wife and several live together or very near each other.... but, again, no will, no estate! John (m/ Damaris) left a will at least, so that helps! and on and on and on!

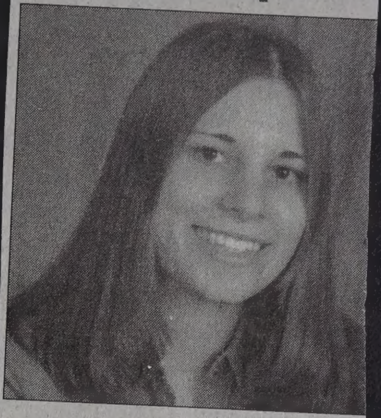
GenFed awards scholarships



ALICIA FRANKLIN

ANTWERP — GenFed Federal Credit Union, Antwerp, awarded two $300 scholarships to students in Paulding County high schools.

"We truly care about our community," says Antwerp branch manger Vicki Sefton, "and we consistently hear our members concerns about affording a college education. We thought a scholarship that is available to high school students in our area would be a practical way that we could give something back to Paulding County."

The winners were selected based upon a written response to an essay question judged on originality, attention to detail and organization. They were not required to be GenFed members to win.

Winner Alicia Franklin of Antwerp High School plans to use her scholarship at Wright State University and major in accounting. Alicia runs cross country and is a cheerleader for Antwerp High's football team.

Subject: Re: John Smith - Rebecca Davis, m. 1810 Hardy Co., VA

Hi Lucy:
I probably know much less than you do. In an 1835 White Co., IN deed from Joseph H. Thompson to the newly arrived John Davis it is stated, "John Davis of Hardy County, VA. That statement has led our Davis family researchers on a wild goose chase for years. John was probably b. in Monongalila Co., VA (present day Taylor Co., WV) in 1800. We don't know his attachment to Hardy Co. but can guess he may have been b. there assuming his mother, Mary Davis, had returned to her former home to await John's birth. Mary, wife of Abel Davis, was b. PA & Abel was b. MD based on 1880 census data in reference to John Davis, m. g3 grandfather. Where Ael & Mary were before migration to Monongalia Co. is unknown.
John m. Mary Elizabeth "Isabella" Newland ca. 1818 but there is no m. record in WV. John either m. Isabella bdfore he left VA or he returned. I prefer the fromer since their first child, Josiah was b. in Champaign Co., OH in 1819.
Abel & Mary named their children: Mary, b 1790, Rebecca, Catherine, John, Isaac, Philip H., Jacob, & Nancy.
Philip H. Davis, m. Catherine Smith, 14 Sep 1828 probably in Champaign Co., OH. But who was Catherine? Philip & Catherine had 5 kids: Merrit, Charlott, Nancy Ann, William and John Smith Davis. John Smith Davis and his mother Catherine are buried in Chautauqua Co., KS.
Rebecca Davis
sure caught my attention since she m. a Smith and because John had a sister Rebecca. While looking aroung I found a John Smith will probated 1780 in Charles Co., MD
http://archiver.rootsweb.com/th/read/Smith/1999-08/0935605446
John Smith m. Jane and they had Thomas, John, Jane and Rebecca who is listed as Rebecca Davis in his 1778 will. I was not able to determine surety for Rebecca Davis who m. John Smith in Hardy Co. Do you have that answer?
I will spend some time looking for the Smith's in my DAvis tribe and be in touch.

Morgan appears as Morgan Cummings in the 1840 Census for Chatfield Township, Crawford Co., Ohio and as Morgan Cummins in Chatfield,Crawford in the 1860 Census. His divorce from Elizabeth is recorded the 28 Jun 1861 in Crawford Co. He married Sarah Janes 15 Sep 1860 before the divorce. By 1868, he was in Michigan.

Morgan b: 13Feb1813 in Virgina d: 22Jun1906 Hillsdale MI is the father of my Great grandfather James Henry Cummins b: 21May1867 Hillsdale MI d: 5Feb1922 Hillsdale Michigan. From what we have found Morgan was married to Elizabeth Smith on 3Dec1835 They had 3 sons and 1 child that died as an infant.. while he was still married to Elizabeth he married Sarah Janes on 15Sep1860.. his divorce from Elizabeth was 28Jun1861 in Crawford County OH. Sarah Janes and Morgan had 2 children Hattie B. Cummins born in1861 (later married to a man named Woltz) and our James Henry, Sarah died in Jun of 1867 in Hillsdale. My sister is speculating her death may have been complications from the birth because the county court house records have been lost to a fire in Hillsdale for that time frame we may not ever get a death certificate. After Sara, Morgan went onto wed Hattie (Hayward) Fiddler 6Oct1870. We put Morgan with David (that had a saw-mill on Honey Creek) based on information in a book of!

history of Auburn Township Ohio and census from the area plus more than a few Rootsweb entries we found online. We have located Morgan's grave based on cemetary records there is no marker, there is also no marker for Sara's grave. Thank you for the information about the family Bible.

Subject: Being a Grandpa

Hi Lucy, your cousin Marcus

I received an e-mail from my grandson Jason who was excited about getting an immediate response from a fine lady about a query he made concerning his Cummins ancestry. He asked if I had heard of a Lucy Weaver, told him we were cousins. Jason is my daughter's son of her first marriage. He came to me with a lot of interest in what he could do to determine his biological fathers family. To make a long story short, I sent him to the Family Search (LDS) web site for a free down load of their PAF 4.0 software and gave him a disc containing what I have compiled so far on the Cummins family. His interest and determination is unbelievable, like turning a hound on a rabbet trail. He has achieved a lot on his fathers side. I told him about my frustration regarding my GG grandfather Morgan's parents, guess he wants to help grandpa if he can.

I have found a David Cummins Sr family tree on RootsWeb.com, (Dunham Genealogy & Related Links) which identifies a son David who married Mary (Polly) Trimble and had seven children, generally two years apart. After the birth of the second child a four year span exists. Morgan's birth in 1813 falls in that span of time. More importantly, the birth places of the siblings, the families migration to Crawford county, fits well with our grandfather Morgan. I have entered the data regarding the David Cummins of Rockingham County Virginia and Crawford County Ohio into my system as parents/grandparents of Morgan with a "challenged" parent link until it can be verified.

I was always curious about the Morgan my uncle Clarence identified as having died and was buried in Hillsdale Michigan with grandma Elizabeth in Crawford County Ohio. This became more confusing when I found Morgan as head of household in an 1880 census in Hillsdale county with a wife Betsey, a step son Lafayette (Fidler) and son Henry. The mystery was cleared up with a copy of Divorce Proceedings,Crawford County, obtained from the Crawford County Chapter OGS. CUMMINS, Elizabeth vs CUMMINS, Morgan 28 Jun 1861. I found a listing of those interned in the Hanes/Smith/Eulis Cemetery which identified the first born, William H. of my G grandfather John Cummins who died before John and wife Caroline Bordner moved to Henry County. If you are not aware of this listing take a look at http://freepages.genealogy.rootsweb.com/~ohio/crawford/haynes.htm. There are a number of Smiths in that list that I don't have.

I would be most appreciative if you could check the CUMMINS, David's, family tree at http://awt.ancestry.com/cgi-bin/igm.cgi?op=GET&db=beejd&id=I1150 . I think logically Morgan fits in.

I sent my cousin Clarence a copy of what I have to date on the Cummins family in the form of an ahnentafel report.

Well I have gone on far too long now, please keep in touch, I will do the same.
Marcus

After the Indian troubles were settled the accessions to the population were mostly from Eastern Virginia particularly the professional class, and they introduced the manners and customs of that part of the country, which still to some extent clings to the people of Clarksburg.

While the social and political relations were with Richmond the trading and commercial relations were always with Baltimore, and now that railroad facilities have increased so rapidly in other directions there is but little communication with the mother State, and her influence has not the prominence it had in days of yore.

Statement of John Scripps.

In 1803 at 18 years of age I was sent an unbound apprentice forty miles from home to Clarksburg, Harrison County where I served out my time four years and continued one year longer at journey work at two dollars higher wages per month than was wont to be given. Those five years were the turning point in my life. My coming out to the West had established my health and I had become robust and my perpetual application to work, exposure to all weather general privations frequent fatigues, hard and cold lodgings &c. had habituated me to any endurance so that my new mode of life which to my fellow apprentice was a little purgatory was to me a terrestial paradise cribed as lying on the South Side of Market Street twenty-seven feet west of the North West Corner of said Wilson's brick store house and of the dimensions given above, and thus happily ended the Court House controversy.

The contract price for this new temple of justice was thirty-seven hundred dollars ($3700) and was to be levied for during the years 1810, 1811 and 1812. The contractors were Allison Clark, John Smith and Daniel Morris.

The levy for the purchase of the bell was made at the June Term 1811. It cost two hundred and fifty dollars ($250.00) and was purchased at Pittsburgh. It is still doing duty in the service of the municipal authorities as an alarm bell, and sounding the curfew for the youngsters to retire to their homes.

The plans of this Court House cannot be found. It was a two story brick building surmounted by a graceful cupola and had a front of about thirty-five or forty feet.

The front door opened directly into the Court Room. A stairway led from the room to the jury rooms overhead and was heated by two enormous coal grates placed on the East and West sides of the building.

The Clerk's offices were two small one story buildings one on each side and on a line with the front of the Main building, the County Court Clerk's office being located on the West and the Circuit Clerk's on the East side, and this arrangement has continued until the present day.

These offices were not built at the time the main building was constructed, but several years afterwards.

Both of these office buildings had a door opening out into the Court House yard, but had no means of communicating with the main building except through the front door.

At the June term of the Court 1813 it is stated that the seat of Justice has been removed and directs that the quarter acre lot on which the former Court House had stood revert back to its former owner Daniel Davisson.

At the July Term 1813 commissioners were appointed to sell the old Court House building to the highest bidder after ten days notice, payment to me made November 1st.

The date on which the new building was completed and occupied is not accurately known, but from the fact that Court was held in it in 1813, and that the bell was purchased in 1811, the inference is that it was ready for occupancy in 1812.

This building stood for more than forty years and during that time many distinguished and eloquent lawyers and able jurists appeared at its bar or sat upon its bench.

The whipping post which stood to the rear of the Court House was a large trunk of a tree planted firmly in the ground with two large iron rings, one on each side, through which the culprits arms were passed so cribed as lying on the South Side of Market Street twenty-seven feet west of the North West Corner of said Wilson's brick store house and of the dimensions given above, and thus happily ended the Court House controversy.

I'm seeking information on David Cummins and his son Morgan Cummins. We have found information that David migrated to Crawford County OH in 1818. His son Morgan would have been about 5 years of age then. David is reported to have built a mill at Honey Creek in 1827 and served on the Auburn township board as treasurer in 1821. His son Morgan married Elizabeth Smith and we have 3 children listed for them Abner, John and a William that died as an infant. It is believed that Morgan was also married to a lady named Sarah on Sept 15, 1860 and had children Hattie and James Henry. Would like to know if David is buried in Crawford county and where, If the marriage to Sarah is recorded there and her last name. We think that David & Morgan were born in Virginia. We have a birth date of Feb 13, 1813 for Morgan.
